TESTS FOR B.C. CAR DRIVERS TO GO AHEAD

Duke of Windsor Postpones Visit To United States

Ex-King in Paris Says Misunderstandings Cause of Decision

Bedaux Asked Release as Guide

PARIS (AP)—The Duke of Windsor announced tonight he had decided to postpone his visit to the United States.

He said he announced the postponement "with great reluctance."

A statement issued on the Duke's behalf from his hotel said the trip was deferred because of "grave misconceptions which have arisen and misstatements which have appeared regarding the motives and purpose of the industrial tour."

The Duke and Duchess were to have sailed Saturday on the liner Bremen for New York.

The announcement of the postponement came after dispatches from Paris this morning had said the Duke and Duchess were proceeding with their plan to visit the United States, and were preparing to board the liner Bremen tomorrow for the voyage. A representative of the Duke said during the morning that no change in the arrangements was contemplated.

APPEAL FROM BEDAUX

NEW YORK (AP)—Charles E. Bedaux, friend of the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, today "implored" and "begged" the former British monarch to relieve him from duties as guide in connection with the Windsors' tour of the United States.

Bedaux, attacked by United States labor organizations, sent the following cable to the Duke:

"I am compelled in honesty and friendship to advise you that because of mistaken attacks upon me here, I am convinced that your proposed study will be made difficult under my guidance."

"Since my sole object has been and is to serve your repeatedly expressed desire to obtain first-hand information from personal observation, I respectfully suggest, and in your behalf, I implore that you relieve me completely from all my duties in connection with your American tour."

"I shall be happy to extend to the person designated by you as my successor every possible assistance and co-operation."

"Grateful as I am for your request that I continue I, nevertheless, beg you to be guided by the knowledge that my deepest wish is the full attainment of the

Community Chest at Three-quarter Mark

Campaign Total at $54,622.63 as Women Nearly Double Objective

Contributions to the Community Chest yesterday totaled $5,229.12, a drop of $4,000 from the previous day's high mark of $9,315.31.

The welfare federation, however, reached the three-quarter way mark with three days of its campaign still to go. Auditors under J. Leeming reported receipts of the chest now totaled $54,622.63.

Campaign directors urged canvassers to renewed efforts as J. W. Ruggles, chairman of A division, reported he had almost exhausted his "special gifts" list. Mr. Ruggles has collected $34,490 to date and estimates that the chest can only expect another $6,000 from this source.

"The other divisions will have to make it up," Frank Paulding, campaign manager, declared this morning. "If everyone in the

JAPANESE GAIN AT SHANGHAI

In Attack They Drive Chinese From Villages South of Soochow Creek

SHANGHAI (AP)—Japanese troops, in a surprise attack, Friday drove Chinese defenders from four villages on the south bank of Soochow Creek.

This action, first decisive engagement in the Shanghai fighting since Chinese troops evacuated Chapel last week, enabled the Japanese to move 3,000 men across the creek on a line two miles west of Rubicon village.

The Japanese attack, according to a Chinese spokesman who admitted the setback, was made while Chinese troops were busy fighting off smaller Japanese units which previously had effected a crossing at the Rubicon village, about three miles west of Shanghai.

One Japanese bomber crashed near Shanghai and another was shot down at Chengchow on the Nankow-Peking railway.

THIRTEENTH WEEK

Japanese forces opened the 13th week of Shanghai fighting with an offensive designed to drive Chinese south of their new defence lines along Soochow Creek.

The Japanese push started along a one-mile front between Rubicon and Warren Roads after 10 days of preparation and skirmishes which followed the Chinese retreat from the Chapel section north of the International Settlement. Chinese faced the advancing Japanese from lines nearly a mile south of the creek.

During the night, Japanese were believed to have pushed southward to a line near the junction of Peerce and Monument roads. A prolonged artillery duel followed.

Nominate Liberal Candidate Tonight

The delegate convention of the Victoria Liberal Association will be held tonight at 8 in the Chamber of Commerce, for the purpose of selecting the Liberal candidate for the Dominion by-election. C. H. O'Halloran, K.C., will preside.

The name of E. W. Mayhew, managing director of the Sidney Roofing and Paper Co., is the only one so far proposed as the candidate.

Surgeons Now Nail Legs Together

Nailing a broken hip bone together is surgery's latest method in speeding mending of a fracture of the "femoral neck," as demonstrated above at the Clinical Congress of the American College of Surgeons at Chicago the other day. When the plumb-bob, watched by the nurse, shows the bones in alignment, the surgeon drives a vitalium nail, through an incision, into the upper shaft of the thigh bone and the head of the femur, in the hip socket, fastening the broken pieces together. The noncorrosive nail remains in the patient for life.

New British Quota Means Expansion Of Victoria Industry

Additional Studio Will Be Built By Central Films at Willows

Victoria, which has the only regularly-producing motion-picture company in Canada, will benefit materially under the terms of the new Cinematograph Act, given second reading by the British House of Commons yesterday and extending the British quota system for another ten years under an amended form.

The first step towards the expansion of Central Films Limited, necessitated under the more stringent conditions of the new act, was announced this morning by the company's president, Kenneth J. Bishop.

A second sound stage will be put into operation soon at the Willows, he said. Because the more expensive pictures which are expected to be called for under amended regulations will require larger sets, the company will have to have two studios in which to operate.

At the same time Mr. Bishop announced the company's 11th picture, the third of its new production schedule, would go into production within two weeks.

NEW STAGE PLANS

The new stage will probably be built in another of the exhibition buildings at the Willows, where the company already has converted the old Industrial Building into the only complete movie studio in Canada.

The new building will have to be completely soundproofed along the same lines as the present studio.

If no suitable building can be obtained Central Films may consider building its own structure as near as possible to the Industrial Building.

The addition of an extra sound stage would mean the purchase of several thousand dollars worth of extra equipment and the employment of more local labor during production.

NEW EQUIPMENT

The company's facilities have been increased during the last two weeks by the acquisition of a developing machine capable of processing 1,200 feet of negative film an hour, and a printing machine is at present being assembled at a local machine shop from parts imported from Hollywood.

"I think it's a great thing," said Mr. Bishop this morning, commenting on the amended quota law. "If it is passed it will protect the British film in-

Ship Reported Sunk Is Safe

MARSEILLES, France (AP)—The French freighter Corse, reported sunk Thursday off Barcelona, was escorted here today by two French warships. Her captain said a seaplane, marked with skull and crossbones, had dropped 11 bombs without scoring a hit.

The Corse's hull showed evidence of machine gun fire.

JAPAN WANTS SIBERIA FISH

TOKIO (AP)—A Foreign Office spokesman said today Soviet Russia was urged to renew her fishing treaty with Japan "not only from the standpoint of justice but in consideration of future Russo-Japanese relations."

Japanese Declare Against Mediation In The War In China

No Third Party Welcomed, Says Tokio, But Hitler Reports Persist

TOKIO (AP)—A Japanese Foreign Office source declared Friday Japan was "unable to accept any mediation whatsoever in her conflict with China."

He made the statement when asked to comment on reports from Berlin that Chancellor Hitler had been asked to act as mediator in the hostilities. Despite his assertion, it was learned Japanese and German diplomats recently had conferred with each other.

"Japan does not recede from her original contention that peace is possible only through direct negotiations between Japan and China, and then only if China changes her attitude," the source said.

Social Creditor Takes Over Post

L. D. Byrne Reaches Alberta From England and Becomes Commissioner

EDMONTON (CP)—Alberta's Social Credit problem at present "is entirely political" and it would be premature for Major C. H. Douglas to come to the province now, L. D. Byrne said today on his arrival from Birmingham, England, to become permanent commissioner under the Alberta Social Credit Commission. His observation was made in answer to a question as to when the Social Credit pioneer might visit the province.

"When the people of Alberta have control of their own credit within their own borders and thus have power to use their own resources, it will be possible to start putting democracy into effect," he said. "Then the problem will become a technical one."

"It is at this point Major Douglas, if invited to do so, will be able to come out to advise on

House Will Be Asked to Back Plan For Checking Up Incompetent Drivers

MEMBERS MAY GET CUTS BACK

Move to Raise Legislators' Indemnities Is Hinted

Members of the British Columbia Legislature now in session here are talking of a move to have their indemnities and cabinet salaries restored to the pre-depression level, but whether it will get as far as the House in the shape of the necessary legislation is uncertain.

The members supporting the idea point out that they are now the only people paid out of the provincial treasury who are laboring under depression pay cuts. All civil service salaries have been restored to the old levels.

The members and cabinet ministers took a 20 per cent cut in the Jones economy regime. It was written into the Constitution Act so that the pay could not be restored without a special bill.

Members now get $1,600 a session where they used to get $2,000, and minister get, in addition, $6,000 where they once got $7,500. The premier gets $7,200 where the figure used to be $9,000.

It would cost the treasury $31,500 a year to make the full restoration.

An amendment to the Constitution Act would be necessary for the increase.

POPPY SALE TO AID VETERANS

Annual Remembrance Day Campaign to Open Tomorrow in City

The annual sale of poppies by the Remembrance Day committee of the Canadian Legion, to help ex-servicemen and their dependents, will start in Victoria tomorrow morning.

The committee hopes Victorians will come forward and give the generous support they have in the past to the poppy sellers. Volunteers to aid in the sale of the emblems are still needed. Those wishing to help are asked to communicate with J. Waterson, manager of the poppy campaign headquarters, 1321 Government Street. The telephone number is G 7621.

The poppies are made by veterans at the Red Cross workshop, Johnson Street, and their purchase aids these men to earn a livelihood as well as assisting veterans and their families in need.

Wreaths have been sold by canvassers to downtown establishments for some days. The sale is not quite as good as last year so far, Mr. Waterson reports.

NOTES SENT TO SPAIN LEADERS

Britain Asks Approval of Plan to Withdraw Foreigners

LONDON (AP)—Great Britain sent notes to the Spanish government and to the insurgent regime today, asking approval of a new Nonintervention committee plan for withdrawing foreign soldiers from the civil war.

Apparently marking the first genuine progress after months of wrangling and deadlock, the impending move seemed to find the Nonintervention delegates rather apathetic.

Some were encouraged, but pointed to many difficulties to be overcome before the thousands of foreign soldiers on both sides could be cleared out. Others held the view it was "a case of locking the stable door after the horse is stolen."

BALTIMORE—C. S. Howard's Seabiscuit won the $10,000 Riggs handicap here today, setting a new track record of 1:57 2-5 for the mile and three-sixteenths and regaining the year's money-winning title from War Admiral.

Shorter Day For Nurses Coming

Vancouver Doctor Tells Convention of Eight-hour-day Plan

"The time is coming when we will see nurses working on an eight-hour day. The movement is spreading rapidly throughout North America and is coming into eastern Canada," said Dr. A. K. Haywood, general superintendent of the Vancouver General Hospital, in submitting a report on the American Hospital Association convention held in Atlantic City this year to the B.C. Hospitals' Association convention this morning.

Dr. Haywood said the subject of nurses' hours had been one of the most controversial subjects at the convention, which in 1939 will be held at Toronto in conjunction with the International Hospitals' Association meeting, this year held in Paris.

SAYS HOURS UNFAIR

Present long hours for nurses were unfair to both hospital and patient, Dr. Haywood said. It was unfair to ask nurses to do their best when they were fed-up and tired with long hours of work. It had been found, he continued, that costs of the eight-hour day were not nearly as exorbitant as many people thought they would be.

Another matter of controversy had been the question of labor troubles in hospitals. In several U.S. institutions there had been labor difficulties and preparation should be made to meet such troubles, Dr. Haywood said.

AUXILIARY REPORTS

Other business this morning included the presentation of reports of women's auxiliaries, over which Mrs. Elizabeth Sheppard, Victoria, presided.

Two Britons In Jerusalem Slain

JERUSALEM (CP-Havas)—Two British soldiers of the Black Watch Regiment were killed on the main street here tonight by revolver shots fired by an Arab.

The killed Highlanders were off duty, strolling through Jerusalem's crowded centre, when they met death. The assassin and an accomplice escaped in the ensuing confusion.

Automobile Operators to Face Testing Machine and Traffic Exam

$1 Fee Proposed

The provincial government has decided to go ahead with its plan of testing all automobile drivers, and will shortly submit a bill to the British Columbia Legislature for the necessary authority, Attorney-General Gordon S. Wismer announced today.

Under the plan every person in British Columbia who drives a car, some 150,000 in all, will eventually have to submit to a driving test and an examination in traffic rules.

They will be charged $1 for the test, the fee being to pay the cost of making it. The test is not an annual affair, and once a driver has passed he is entitled to his annual license without further test unless his qualifications are questioned in the meantime as the result of an accident or other cause.

For a start it is proposed to do the testing in Victoria and vicinity and Vancouver and the Lower Mainland, where the bulk of the cars in the province are located.

It may take two years to examine all drivers. After that only those applying for driver's licenses for the first time need submit to the tests.

The scheme has a two-fold purpose, according to the Attorney-General, first, to weed out the incompetent drivers who are a menace to public safety on the highways; second, to bring forcibly to the attention of the motoring public the need for care in driving.

On the basis of similar tests conducted in the United States and elsewhere, it is expected about 2,000 driving licenses may be cancelled in British Columbia. The proportion of incompetents in other places has been slightly over 1 per cent.

Testing will be done by special robot machines, which are designed to prove a person's ability to handle a car, judge the speed of his reactions, his reflexes, sight, color sense and other things used in driving a car.

Regarded as of equal importance is the examination in traffic rules. Drivers will be tested for knowledge of standard traffic signs and how they handle their cars on the highway.

Experts will be obtained to conduct the tests.

King Boris Drives Train in England

LONDON (AP)—Wearing white overalls and with his smiling face begrimmed, King Boris of Bulgaria today set a royal speed record of 88 miles an hour as engineer of the streamlined train, "Coronation Scot."

The visiting monarch, whose hobby is locomotives, took the train on a 47-mile run from Euston Station to Bletchley.

"It's the best train journey I ever made," he exclaimed.

Gold Price At London Mounts

Raised Today to $35.10, Which Is 10 Cents Above U.S. Level

NEW YORK (AP)—The soaring gold price in London strengthened foreign markets today, revived the old rumors of a possible increase in the United States price of gold, and brought substantial gains on the New York Stock Exchange.

The gold early in the day was fixed in London at the equivalent of $34.98 an ounce, and later was advanced to $35.10—10 cents an ounce higher than the fixed United States price, and the highest gold has been in London's free market in two years.

The London parity price for gold is $34.76, the limit on the upside at which it would still be profitable to ship the metal to this country.

Exchanges abroad were filled with speculation as to whether the United States would devalue the dollar by further increasing the price of gold. The pound sterling and French franc advanced, while Canadian funds ruled steady at 3-64 per cent.

Stanley S. McKeen, who sat in the last House as a Liberal for Point Grey, was an interested visitor on the floor yesterday.

Attorney-General Wismer introduced three minor bills. One requires that guests at auto camps and hotels in unorganized territories must be registered the same as in cities. The others are amendments to the Jury Act and the Sales on Consignment Act.

The cost of printing some 30,000 copies of 11 bulletins covering the new school curriculum was $15,496. Hon. G. M. Weir said in reply to a question.

DUKE OF WINDSOR POST-PONES VISIT TO UNITED

objects of your visit to the United States.

"I remain, sire, your devoted friend,
"CHARLES E. BEDAUX."

The Duke and Duchess were invited to luncheon today at the British embassy in Paris—the second occasion on which the Duke has been entertained by a British diplomatic official since the December abdication. He was entertained at Vienna by the British minister before his wedding.

Thursday night the Duke and Duchess were honor guests at a farewell dinner given by United States ambassador William Bullitt. When the guests had dined, they adjourned to the music room, where Stoll Andersen, concert pianist, played Chopin and Mozart numbers.

The Baltimore, Md., Federation of Labor Wednesday night "confronted" the Duke of Windsor for planning to tour the United States with Charles E. Bedaux as his guide, terming Bedaux an "arch-enemy of labor." The resolution contained a "slumming party" reference.

Bedaux, an industrial engineer, is inventor of a work system which labor men call the "stretch-out." Thursday night in New York Bedaux said he had telephoned the Duke offering to withdraw as guide, but that the Duke then had "positively and definitely waved aside" the suggestion.

The Duke and Duchess were married at Bedaux's chateau in France.

C.I.O. STATEMENT

In Washington Thursday night an official of the Committee for Industrial Organization joined leaders of the American Federation of Labor in deploring the Duke's choice of C. E. Bedaux as guide.

Francis J. Gorman, president of the United Textile Workers, issued a statement "reminding" the Duke and Duchess "that their guide made his money from the sweat of the textile workers."

Gorman is a member of the textile workers' organizing committee of John L. Lewis's Committee for Industrial Organization.

SHANGHAI

lery bombardment ushered in the drive.

TOWARD AIRDROME

The Japanese objective apparently was the Hungjiao airdrome, three miles southwest of Rubicon village, where hostilities about this international city started August 9 with the slaying of a Japanese naval officer and a man.

A Japanese naval spokesman said Japanese had been ordered to respect foreign property in the Hungjiao district unless the property was used by Chinese for military purposes.

Only after a series of costly engagements did the Japanese establish their front south of Soochow Creek in a section of Chinese lines which extend west from the International Settlement.

Japanese shock troops crossed the stream on sampans and rafts. Chinese drove them back a number of times with heavy casualties until finally, in the wake of an artillery barrage and aerial bombardment, Japanese effected the consolidation of two sizeable spearheads.

JAPANESE GAIN IN NORTH

TIENSIN (CP-Havas)—The walled north China city of Changteh, first important Hanan centre south of the Hopeh border on the Peking-Hankow Railway, fell into Japanese hands today. The main force of Chinese defenders was reported falling back under the incessant attack of Japanese airplanes.

On the Shansi fronts to the northwest the two invading columns of Japanese advancing from the north and east reached points 15 and 17 miles respectively from Taiyuanfu, the provincial capital.

In the north the invaders again broke through Chinese defenses at Talmencheng Pass and captured the village of Pailincheng, 15 miles north of Taiyuanfu.

It was understood Chinese headquarters already had been moved out of Taiyuanfu to the relative safety of the south. The provincial government has also fled the city and established itself elsewhere in the province out of the path of the invaders.

JAPANESE DECLARE AGAINST MEDIATION IN THE WAR IN CHINA

ment on the wording of a peace appeal to be sent to Japan.

The conferees decided not to appoint a contemplated committee of conciliation until they obtained from Japan an answer on the projected peace appeal. Preliminary discussion of the membership of this committee of conciliation had led to controversial debate.

Delegations to the conference, which is seeking an amicable settlement of the Chinese-Japanese conflict on the basis of the Nine-power Treaty, were preparing written amendments this afternoon to the draft of the peace appeal submitted by the Belgian Foreign Minister, Paul H. Spaak.

Tomorrow, the conferees hope to reach an agreement on the final text. British delegates said "hopeful progress" had been made today.

The Chinese delegation objected to omission of China's complaints against Japan in the first draft, which included references to Japan's complaints against China.

M. Spaak's draft, submitted to the conference during this forenoon's session, emphasized the conference was not a child of the League of Nations as shown by the presence of a United States delegation.

The proposed communication pointed out that Japan, a Nine-power Pact signatory, who refused to come to Brussels, had left the door open for the friendly offices of powers with interests in the Far East.

It also remarked Japan had given assurances she had no territorial ambitions in China and expressed the hope Japan would collaborate for restoration of peace.

China offered to retire temporarily from the conference during discussion of the letter, but Italy's chief delegate, Count Luigi Aldrovandi Marescotti, insisted this was not necessary.

BRITISH POSITION

The British delegation was understood to favor the approach to Tokyo through the Spaak letter as a means of circumventing the contentious question of drawing up a committee to mediate the Japanese-Chinese conflict.

Conference circles said two possible reasons lay behind this British attitude.

First, that by spurning further discussion of the composition of the committee on which Italy had demanded a place with Britain, Belgium, the United States and possibly France and Russia—Italy might be eliminated from such a body.

Second, if the committee question should come up next week, Italy by then would have signed a projected anti-Communism pact with Japan and Germany and therefore no longer would be eligible for committee membership in the eyes of China and Russia and possibly certain other powers.

With Italy out, Russia, too, might agree to relinquish any claim to representation on the mediation committee.

There was hope M. Spaak's letter might be dispatched to Tokyo for consideration over the week-end.

The view of the French delegation was that the committee membership question should be left open until a reply to M. Spaak's letter had been received.

GERMAN OPINION

BERLIN (AP)—Germany fully expected today to steal a march on the Brussels Conference, which she declined to attend, and settle the Japanese-Chinese war herself.

Preliminary informal requests from both China and Japan for Chancellor Hitler to act as an umpire in their four-month-old conflict were regarded by Germany as so bona fide that Hitler, according to a source close to the chancellery, ordered diplomat Joachim von Ribbentrop to return post haste from Rome to undertake preliminary negotiations.

(The German embassy in Rome said the three-cornered pact against communism would be signed tomorrow at Rome.)

German sources are fully convinced if anyone could settle the Far Eastern difficulties as an impartial outsider it was Germany. While making no secret of her friendship for Japan, the Reich at the same time has been careful to maintain good relations with China.

Moreover, China is indebted to Germany because of the German military experts who have aided her and because Germany has renounced all claims to extraterritoriality for her nationals in China.

Before accepting the role of mediator, however, sources close to the chancellery said Hitler wanted to make absolutely sure his judgment would be accepted unquestioningly.

the technical steps to be taken. At the moment the problem is entirely political, and in my view it would be premature for Major Douglas to come here at the present time."

Mr. Byrne, accompanied by his wife and two children, was met by G. F. Powell, government technical adviser. The two, named by Major Douglas, first came to Alberta from England last June and Mr. Byrne has returned from England to assume the permanent government post.

WORLD WATCHES

"I found my visit to the Old Country and the journey itself most informative in regard to gaining a long distance appreciation of the Alberta situation," said Mr. Byrne. "There is no doubt about it. The eyes of the world are on Alberta."

Saying many press reports in England were incorrect, Mr. Byrne stated that despite this there was a very definite swing of public opinion in sympathy with Alberta.

"I spoke with many business men and I found that among them there is a growing conviction there must be a change," Mr. Byrne added.

"When people everywhere see the efforts of Alberta to establish the Social Credit and economic system which alone holds out any hope of saving the world from disaster being thwarted and savagely fought by the financial interests, it is naturally leading them to do a bit of hard thinking," Mr. Byrne said.

OBJECTIVE OBSERVATION

"As I have repeatedly stated, I am not concerned with party politics so that my observation of the political situation during my journey across Canada was quite objective. Everywhere I found a growing sympathy with Alberta and a growing resentment that she was being thwarted in her efforts to alleviate the suffering of her people and to deal with the debt question which looms so large throughout the Dominion."

TO VISIT B.C. COAST

Commander R. C. Richardson, retired British naval officer of Leedbury, Herefordshire, and his daughter, Miss Audrey Richardson, accompanied Mr. Byrne, when he arrived in Edmonton today.

Commander Richardson, long a student of Social Credit, said he was visiting Alberta as an impartial observer. He intends to study Alberta's Social Credit efforts and hopes to visit the Pacific Coast before returning to England.

IN SIX MONTHS

CALGARY (CP)—A favorable decision by the Privy Council in London on the province's legislation now before the Supreme Court of Canada would mean that within six months of the judgment Alberta would have Social Credit, declared Hon. Lucian Maynard, provincial minister of municipal affairs, speaking here.

At a Social Credit civic election rally here Thursday night, Mr. Maynard said, however, it might be a year before a final decision could be obtained from the Privy Council.

The legislation, Mr. Maynard added, was the "easiest way to Social Credit" and one the government wished to take. If the decision should go against the bills, he said, the government would be forced to take the indirect road, "which is longer but will get us there just the same."

Police Board
Change Opposed

Mayor G. C. Miller Wants Judge and Magistrate in Vancouver Body

VANCOUVER (CP)—Mayor G. C. Miller today repeated a previous statement he was opposed to "making a political football of Vancouver's police commission." The chief magistrate was commenting on reports from Victoria that Premier Pattullo thought the membership of the commission would have to be altered.

The present commission consists of Mayor Miller, County Judge J. N. Ellis and Police Magistrate H. S. Wood. Premier Pattullo said Thursday he thought judges and magistrates should not sit on the commission and deal in an administrative capacity in determining police policy.

"I am absolutely opposed to any change and will fight with all my power to maintain the commission's present status," the mayor said. "The present method has worked out splendidly. It is absolutely satisfactory."

The Premier's statement followed receipt by him of a letter from Judge Ellis, asking that he be relieved of his commission duties.

Today Judge Ellis said: "I have asked to be relieved of my police commission duties and apparently the Premier is going to grant my request. I am a judge and I want to be a judge."

Opposition of Mayor Miller to a change in the judicial police commission system in Vancouver does not affect Victoria's request for a change in its commission, it was explained today at the Legislative Buildings.

Victoria's police commission set-up is laid down in the Municipal Act. Vancouver's is governed by the Vancouver charter. Thus the Municipal Act may be altered to meet Victoria's request without affecting Vancouver.

Catarrhal Deafness
and Head Noises

TREAT SAFE, SIMPLE WAY TO TREAT AND RELIEVE AT HOME

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness, or if phlegm drops in your throat and has caused catarrh of the stomach or bowels you will be glad to know that these distressing symptoms may be easily overcome in many instances by the following treatment which you can easily prepare in your own home at little cost. Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Farnam (Double Strength). Take this one day. An improvement is sometimes noted after the first day's treatment. Breathing should become easy, while the distressing head noises, head-aches, dizziness, slowly thinking, etc., should gradually disappear under the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of small taste, defective hearing and mucous dripping in the back of the throat are other symptoms which suggest the presence of catarrh and which may often be overcome by this efficacious treatment. It is said that nearly ninety per cent of all ear troubles are caused by catarrh and there must, therefore, be many people whose hearing may be restored by this simple, harmless, home treatment.

Murder Trial In Racket Hunt

Thomas E. Dewey Brings Morris Goldis Before Court in New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Special Prosecutor Thomas E. Dewey Thursday produced a first degree murder indictment against Morris Goldis, 27, who was released for lack of evidence three years ago in a racket killing.

The indictment voted by the grand jury but kept secret for three weeks during the campaign which led to the election last Tuesday of Dewey as district attorney of New York County (Manhattan), was handed up to Supreme Court Justice Ferdinand Pecora less than 24 hours after Charles A. Schneider had announced his resignation as assistant state attorney-general.

Schneider, who Thursday renewed his threat of a libel suit against Dewey, was named in one of the prosecutor's recent campaign speeches as the "well-connected lawyer" and Tammany district leader who defended Goldis when he first was arrested.

Goldis, accused of being the gunman hired to shoot W. Snyder, a local union chief, in the back during a meeting of flour truckmen in a lower east side restaurant, has been held as a material witness for the last three months. He was scheduled to be arraigned today.

Dewey, who has been acting as special rackets' prosecutor, charged Snyder was killed because he stood in the way of racketeers' efforts to take over the flour and baking industry.

Dewey will take office January 1 as the first non-Tammany district attorney in more than two decades.

TAX COLLECTION

New Faces In The House

Macgregor Macintosh, member for the Islands, has been there before.

MACGREGOR MACINTOSH

Conservative member in the Legislature for the Islands, was born in Glasgow, Scotland, in 1896, and came to Canada in 1903. He went to Manitoba and in 1913 arrived in British Columbia, and worked with the Grand Trunk Railway. He went overseas from Saskatoon, with the 2nd University Company, P.C.L.I., and after the war remained in military service, being stationed in Toronto, Winnipeg and Esquimalt. He retired in 1930 and went to live on Salt Spring Island. He is not new to the Legislature. He was a member of the Tolmie administration for the Islands in 1931, 1932 and 1933. He married a daughter of the late Sir Richard McBride, at one time Premier of British Columbia and later agent-general for the province in London.

SAYS PATIENCE KEEPS WAR OFF

Britain Realizes Dangers of Starting Conflict in Europe, Says Speaker

Great Britain is exercising the utmost patience in connection with present unrest in Europe only because she realizes that a declaration of war against any single foreign power would result in another major world conflict, E. E. Richards told a large audience in the Chamber of Commerce yesterday evening, speaking on "The Bible and the Approaching Climax."

In endeavoring to prove the fulfillment of certain Biblical prophecies by current events in Europe and Palestine, Mr. Richards discussed Mussolini's determination to rebuild the Roman Empire, Germany's desire for the return of her former colonies, the war in Spain, the undeclared war between China and Japan in the Far East and Japan's hopes to become master of the Pacific.

Mr. Richards declared that Germany and Italy were responsible for much of the present unrest in Europe. With Italy holding control of the east and west Mediterranean he foresaw her ultimate aim to seize control of the Suez Canal.

Rev. James Hood was chairman and the address was illustrated with lantern slides.

Three Canadians Die in Spain

TORONTO (CP) — Deaths of three Canadians fighting with the Mackenzie-Papineau Battalion for the Spanish government were announced Thursday by local offices of the "Friends" of the battalion.

The three were Harry J. Kuryk, 42, Edmonton, Alta., a carpenter, member of the Ukrainian Farmer-Labor Temple Association; Boris Aleksis, 31, Lethbridge, Alta., and Edgar W. Williamson, young seaman, formerly of Winnipeg, more recently of Halifax.

The latter two were killed in action at Belchite. No details were available regarding Kuryk's death.

King to Honor Haig's Memory

LONDON (CP) — The King will lay a wreath at the base of the Earl Haig statue in Whitehall on Armistice Day. It is announced. The equestrian monument to the commander-in-chief of the British forces during the Great War will be unveiled by the Duke of Gloucester November 10. On the following day, after heading the Armistice Day observance at the Cenotaph, His Majesty will walk down Whitehall to the Haig statue and then return to Buckingham Palace.

FEDERAL POLLS RUMORS ENDED

Premier King Says People Wish Government to Round Out Term

OTTAWA (CP) — Canada is not likely to have a general election until late in 1940, unless some unforeseen contingency arises, Prime Minister King, setting at rest rumors which he said had circulated recently that an early appeal to the people was to be expected, answered questions asked by newspaper men Thursday night following a cabinet meeting, the last session of the week.

"Any person wishing to speculate on the next general election," the Prime Minister said, "would be more likely to guess right if a date was selected well on to 1941." He recalled writs for the last general election were returnable November 9, 1935, and Parliament has a statutory term of five years.

"Whether we continue to the end of the legal term, as was done by the last government, or have an earlier dissolution," the Prime Minister continued, "will depend on what will happen during the interim."

LARGEST MAJORITY

"So far as we can see at present we have reason to believe the people of Canada want to see the present government remain in office as long as it possibly can. We have the largest majority ever given a government in Canada, and after two years in office that majority remains intact."

Questioned on rumored cabinet reorganization, the Prime Minister said no changes were contemplated. He could not say what might happen in the future, but declared no changes were planned now.

General improvement in economic conditions at home and in foreign trade and other circumstances bearing on the prosperity of the people, the Prime Minister said, "lead us to believe the people would want us to carry on as long as we can."

ONTARIO GOVERNOR

The term of Lieutenant-Governor Bruce of Ontario had not been formally extended, the Prime Minister said, but in accordance with customary procedure Dr. Bruce would remain in office until he resigned or was asked to resign. Neither contingency had arisen.

A Lieutenant-Governor is appointed for a nominal term of five years, and Dr. Bruce's term expired last month.

Mr. King said, in answer to another question, the health of Mr. Justice Thibault of the Supreme Court of Canada was causing some uneasiness and the question whether he could continue as a member of the Royal Commission on Dominion-provincial affairs was under consideration.

Another Attempt

ONCE MORE THE LEGISLATURE IS TO consider proposed amendments to the Securities Act. These are aimed at taking some of the gamble out of the speculation in mining and other B.C. stock promotions by affording the public a greater measure of protection against the company promoter, the "insider," the dealer in shares and the market manipulator.

Previous legislative attempts to check unfair and unethical practices have not been particularly successful. The series of mining market "scandals," small and large, has continued through recent years despite periodic amending or "strengthening" of the Securities Act. Some of the most unsavory incidents, occasioning widespread loss to the public and undermining confidence generally in British Columbia investment, have been recorded during recent months, since the last changes were made in the act—changes accompanied by assurances that operations coming under the revised legislation had been made all but foolproof in favor of the public.

The amendments now proposed seem all to the good. They would increase the control of the government's department over company set-ups, restrict high-pressure selling of stock and unloading by those on the "inside," and place greater responsibility on directors of companies. This last is important, for it has become too much the custom of company directors in this province to regard lightly their responsibilities to shareholders. Directorship in an incorporated organization is too often viewed chiefly as affording an opportunity for quick and easy profits through taking advantage of information before it is available to the shareholders or the public. One way to curb many abuses of the last few years is to have directors made aware of their responsibility and to enforce strict accountability against them in their capacity of guardians of the shareholders' investments.

Dr. Telford's Maiden Speech

DURING THE LAST FEW YEARS DR. Lyle Telford, leader of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation in the Legislature, has used the radio, as well as the public platform, for the dissemination of his party's propaganda. His phraseology at times no doubt has disturbed the mental serenity of those accustomed only to the traditional political rhetoric employed by the older political parties. But his opposition to orthodox thought on public questions, his firm distrust of the existing system of management in the conduct of public affairs, need not cause any particular alarm. We are living in times of great changes, and that being the case, we need not be surprised if we are regaled quite often with nostrums for the curing of the ills to which mankind is heir. Nor need we be unduly alarmed as their ingredients are placed on view by such eloquent exponents as Dr. Telford.

The C.C.F. leader yesterday delivered his maiden speech in the Legislature. He had assembled voluminous notes and batches of official and unofficial references upon which he could have drawn for much longer than the two hours and ten minutes he was on his feet. At scarcely any time was he the "fire-eater" many of those who listened to him had expected. He is not without a sense of humor. But the case he presented, except occasionally, lacked the force he might have put into his support of it had he confined himself to a discussion of fewer subjects instead of attempting to unload all his burden in one effort. Dr. Telford, of course, will not expect The Times to agree with the basic argument from which he draws the implication that the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation has the key to the solution of all our troubles.

Remembrance

FOR SACRIFICES IN WHAT WAS BELIEVED to be the war to end all wars, the people of Canada will tomorrow be given the opportunity to pay tribute to the memory of 61,061 Canadians who fell in battle and many hundreds of the 619,636 who enlisted and have since died as the result of war service.

The ideals which led the young men of Canada to respond to the appeal for service during the war years may not have been realized, but the spirit which prompted their response is none the less worthy of commendation and respect.

By the purchase of poppies to be offered for sale on the streets of Victoria tomorrow, citizens may both honor the memory of those who made the supreme sacrifice and help those who have suffered from the tragic aftermath of war. The poppies are made in Veterans and Red Cross Workshops throughout Canada. The making of them provides employment for disabled veterans unfit to find a way into the open labor market. Approximately $50,000 is paid out each year in wages to veterans making poppies and through the sale of them many hundreds of thousands of dollars have been raised each year and carefully distributed among worthy war veterans and dependents in distress.

Aberhart in the Pulpit

PREMIER ABERHART'S PLEA FOR more steadfastness of purpose and a spirit of tolerance—a theme upon which he dilated at the Edmonton Prophetic Bible Conference last Sunday—must have struck strangely on the ears of those who are in close touch with what is going on in Social Credit Alberta.

The Social Credit Premier, however, supported his newly-dressed gospel with the assurance that one of the chief boons for which his government was striving was a policy of monetary reform that would put an end to private monopoly, and he considered that to be a measure of reform worthy of the active support of all progressive thinkers. All were seeking the same goal from different ways, he told his congregation, implying that the chief obstacle was merely a "quibble about words when unity should prevail." Mr. Aberhart believed there was "far too much vitriolic criticism in the world today," and "because you do not belong to the same church or lodge or political party that I do, is surely no reason why I should try to insult you or you try to disgrace me."

There would be no disposition to object to some of these high-sounding phrases with which Premier Aberhart regaled his fellow worshippers if, for instance, he would practice in Parliament what he preaches in the pulpit. He knows, of course, that the provisions of his newspaper control bill—held up for the time being until the Supreme Court of Canada has considered certain constitutional aspects involved—are diametrically opposed to the pious utterances to which we have referred.

As we see it, all that is required on the part of the public is the direction of their personal beliefs to the plane on which they would be found in perfect agreement with those nurtured by Premier Aberhart. That, seemingly, in the opinion of Alberta's government leader, would create a state of bliss to replace the existing one in which he infers that "vitriolic criticism" thrives.

Mr. Aberhart is very much like the proud Scots lady, watching a Highland regiment on parade, who is believed to have said of her recently-recruited son, "they're all out o' step but our Jock."

Cheerful Mr. Fraser

QUOTED BELOW IS PART OF A MESSAGE of cheer from a Canadian who knows whereof he speaks because he holds a position in the business realm of the country that gives him accurate information on which to base his conclusions. It is from Mr. Alistair Fraser, vice-president of the Canadian National Railways, who says:

"With the exception of Saskatchewan—and there the courage would break your heart—Canada today is pretty nearly on top of the world."

"Remember the negligible grain movement and then consider how other lines of commerce and industry must have increased this year to give the reflection you get in our own gross earnings figures."

"To date this year in only two periods have our weekly gross earnings dropped below the corresponding periods of last year. Take figures for the 10 days preceding October 31—I use them because they happen to be the last sent me—our gross earnings were $106,000 more than in the corresponding period of 1936."

If Canada in various parts of the country has her troubles, she and her people have a great deal for which to be thankful.

Notes

Japan loves China and wants to help China. And all those bombs have been just love notes?

Among the events they might arrange for the Duke of Windsor when he visits this continent is a grand get-together of all girls who danced with the Prince of Wales.

No war was ever as completely filmed as the one now being waged in Spain. It might have helped a lot, though, if the authorities could have drawn up a shorter scenario.

CONSERVATIVE HANDICAPS

From North Vancouver Review

We had Dr. Patterson and some of his Conservative M.P.'s on the North Shore a few days ago, and one and all they voiced hopes and expectations of coming into office again. Of course, if they were in office again they would do all the things they forgot to do from 1928 to 1933. It was particularly delightful to hear one of them propounding a fisheries policy for British Columbia, conveniently forgetting that while Mr. S. L. Howe was Provincial Secretary and Minister of Fisheries in the Toimie administration 10,000 net fishermen protested so strongly against his proposed regulations that he was compelled to abandon them.

Mr. H. Anscomb, in his turn, was indignant that the federal by-election should be called so soon after the death of Dr. Toimie. Everybody regrets the death of the former Premier, but everybody knows also that federal by-elections are never delayed. This applies, whether the government at Ottawa be either Liberal or Conservative. Otherwise, we remember that at Victoria a session or two ago some Conservative members were protesting against delays in holding by-elections for provincial seats. True, there were no deaths involved, but it is to be remembered that the last Conservative government never called a by-election in Mackenzie at all, following the death of the late Michael Manson, the reason being at that time very obvious.

The fact of the matter is that the chief handicap of the Conservatives as critics of the government is their own administrative record, a fact that will hardly be denied, even by themselves.

Across the Bay

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

UNEXPECTED

A CROWDED HOUSE, a curious government, a gallery full of visitors and, in spirit, the whole public of British Columbia as Dr. Telford. They had come secretly hoping to be shocked, counting on pleasurable horrors and revelations that would make their flesh creep.

It was an occasion. Perhaps no speaker has ever had more advance notice in this place, or a more attentive and expectant audience. After a week of boredom, the House looked forward to a real harrowing, and the galleries to some innocent spectacle. It turned out to be something else altogether, gayer.

Whether Dr. Telford's maiden speech was a good speech or a bad speech is a matter on which opinions will differ widely, but it wasn't the kind of speech, good or bad, that the House had expected. It was quite a different speech—different from the advance notices and different from any other speech ever heard here, over two hours of it, without a pause for breath—130 minutes and nearly that many separate subjects—a tour de force, a kind of non-stop, round-the-world flight which lightly skimmed just about every aspect of public affairs.

This was the first time we had seen Dr. Telford in action in these premises. He is a short, round, pink, genial-faced man with a mane of white hair which, by half-past five, was hanging rather limply about his forehead. He does not look like a politician or a media, but rather like a business man addressing a service club. He makes no attempt at oratory in the ordinary sense; takes no trouble to build his sentences, stir sails along at break-neck speed, thinking and speaking in brief phrases and quick exclamations as he goes.

STRANGE DISH

HIS WEAPON is the machine gun rather than the heavy cannon. He sprays the government with small bullets, firing the second one before the first one has reached its mark. Before he has developed one subject he is off on another, darting here and there so fast that it is difficult to keep up with him, and almost impossible to report him.

His method, judging by the pile of scrap books on his desk, all cross indexed, is to pile together a great mass of miscellaneous material; newspaper clippings; blue books and old speeches by Premier Pattullo, stir them up and produce a smoking broth of his own special flavor. It is a method which has served him well as a radio and platform speaker. In the House it has the weakness of covering too much ground thinly and no point thoroughly, of attempting to serve up the whole history of our politics and the whole theory of our economics at one meal, on one plate, highly flavored but a little indigestible.

And what he covered in this single speech was amazing. A mere index of it would fill a column. But each subject was a mention rather than an argument—a sharp dig, a deft jab right and left and then a quick attack in another direction. He seemed to have an inexhaustible lucky tub, from which he kept pulling prize after prize, one piece of soiled linen after another.

There was sarcasm running through most of it, and some neat wise-cracks—as when he called the government, with its huge revenues, the Gold Diggers of 1937, the most efficient panhandlers on record, the aristocrat of tin canners, and congratulated the Premier on his degree of Doctor of Laws, a man who had doctored more laws in his time than any other member of the House. And when he came to read the Premier's lush campaign speeches of 1933 he showed a sure talent for drama, for melodrama and for high comedy.

Mostly the government listened without comment, at first with keen attention, but later on with boredom, and the Premier, after assuring the House that if he corrected every mistake in the doctor's speech he would be on his feet all the time, lapsed into silence and wrote letters. Mr. Wismer interrupted briefly, but in a friendly way, but the House at large sat in silence, amazed and overwhelmed by two hours and ten minutes of uninterrupted speech, a deluge such as it had never seen before here even in the most rainy season.

Mr. Bruhn's speech, which took up the first hour, brought us back to the dear old beer question, which Dr. Telford also revived, so that the afternoon seemed like old times again. Mr. Bruhn has been in poor health and did not attempt one of his old fighting speeches. It was bad news that he did not intend to run again, and good news when he soon qualified his announcement by promising to run again if the government's unfair treatment of his Salmon Arm continued.

Blandly Mr. Bruhn informed the House that, like the Premier, he was growing too old for useful public service (at which the Premier, looking younger than he did five years ago and in better health, grinned boyishly) and was getting rather tired of party politics anyway. He stood by his independence of any party, but renewed his old plea for a union of Liberals and Conservatives to oppose the C.C.F. and to clarify the only real issue of these times—socialism versus private ownership.

Mr. Uphill was all set to finish the day, but Dr. Telford took us almost to dinner time, and the unique man from Fernie had to wait. The House had heard enough for one afternoon.

BRITAIN'S CRISES

"Ordeal in England," by Sir Philip Gibbs, an interesting and timely book has been received at the Public Library. In this, the author has given us a dramatic recapitulation of the diverse national crises of the last year or so—royal death and royal abdication, shadow of war and ferment of racial animosities—and has reported on them in such a way that the reader has a new and deeper understanding of world conditions. Through this book, from crisis to Coronation—England speaks again.

Price "Rackets" Investigated to Give Consumers a Break

By RODNEY DUTCHER WASHINGTON.

THE newsprint, milk, distribution, fertilizer and automobile tire industries are all being secretly investigated by Department of Justice officials who suspect that consumers are being gypped through violations of the anti-trust laws.

"The automobile finance company 'racket' is also being investigated by a Milwaukee federal grand jury. The Aluminum Company and various big oil corporations already are being directly prosecuted under the monopoly laws."

It is all part of a campaign to try to apply anti-trust laws to industries whose products are bought by large masses of consumers. Newsprint prices were boosted $3 a ton the other day and the Department of Justice is interested in the how and why.

It also is suspected that farmers are paying unjustified, artificial prices for fertilizer. Federal trade commission evidence that "milk trust" companies, fixed prices with so-called producer groups in order to soak consumers are being carefully sifted.

And 14 tire companies which submitted identical bids to a government purchasing agency—and then resubmitted them after they were tossed out—have had the shock of their lives to learn that their bidding methods, too, are being investigated with a view to prosecution.

JACKSON GOES AHEAD

Whether anti-trust laws mean anything and, if so, what, is an interesting—and important—enigma which may soon be solved. Assistant Attorney-General Robert H. Jackson, head of the Department of Justice's anti-trust and business regulation section, is going right ahead on the theory that those laws mean what they say. This is a rather perilous assumption, as it is commonly believed the Supreme Court at one time and another has shot them full of holes and that the monopoly laws must be amended if they are ever to be enforced.

Nevertheless, the present Supreme Court is not the same Supreme Court which held that the "steel trust" and other trusts were not illegal combinations in restraint of trade. An anti-trust law, as Charles Evans Hughes—now chief justice—once said of the Constitution, is what the justices say of it.

Justices often disagree or change their minds and it is quite possible that a Supreme Court which has persuaded itself to validate some of the most controversial laws passed under the New Deal may also come to decide that the venerable statutes designed to curb monopoly are not so toothless after all.

MAY STRENGTHEN LAWS

Furthermore, friends of anti-monopoly laws are edified to find that industrial groups prosecuted or investigated, even if they think they can beat the government's case in the courts, automatically become perturbed and sometimes scared to the point of mending their ways. Until quite recently there had not been any anti-trust prosecutions for nearly 15 years, and such suits as the aluminum and oil actions have come as a shock.

Finally, there is the likelihood that if Jackson and Attorney-General Cummings lose all their present and prospective anti-trust suits, the publicity will spur Congress on to providing stronger legislation.

Congress refused to appropriate more than $475,000 for anti-trust work in the present fiscal year. The oil companies and their officials now on trial at Madison, Wis., have complained that this litigation will cost them at least $2,000,000. And the oil case is but one of several which Jackson is tackling.

HOSPITAL WOMEN WIN PRAISE

To the Editor:—It is interesting to note in Friday Night's Times that the auxiliary of the Jubilee Hospital feel that on account of their tag day, annual hospital shower and ball, etc., they do not need to apply to the Community Chest for aid. Let's congratulate this gallant band of women who feel they can work things out in this way. If one hospital is able to accomplish things in this manner, why not the other one.

Good luck to the Community Chest and may it be over-subscribed.

DORIS ASHDOWN.

I learned about tobacco from him!

● I'll never forget that bright sunny morning in Victoria, B.C. A fresh, balmy breeze was blowing in from the sea. I was staying for a few days at the Empress Hotel, enjoying one of the most beautiful cities in the world. And a stranger beside me in the garden of the hotel had just lit his after-breakfast pipe.

Good Old Chum! That was my first introduction. "Pardon me," I said, "but that is a most delightful aroma. Might I ask what tobacco you are smoking?" "Old Chum," said he. "Have a pipeful."

I've smoked Old Chum ever since. Mild... mellow, flake cut Virginia leaf—I have never tired of Old Chum and I never will. That's why I say—"Once an Old Chum smoker always an Old Chum smoker."

Dog Chain Holds Runaway Boy

Seattle Probation Officers Say Mother Justified In Tying Lad

SEATTLE (AP)—Probation officers planned to co-operate today with Mrs. Evelyn Bronson in checking the mischievousness of her seven-year-old son.

saying an investigation indicated Mrs. Bronson was justified in chaining the boy in the basement of her home to prevent him running away, said the child would probably be placed in some private institution.

Mrs. Bronson said she was forced to use the dog chain on her son as punishment after he had persisted in running away while she was at work. "Once he ran away," she said, "wearing only his pyjamas and sweater,"

THE DEPENDABILITY OF TELEPHONE SERVICE CARRIES AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE TO CAR OWNERS

SO unflinching does the telephone serve us in daily life that we turn to it instinctively in emergencies. We take its dependability for granted... but the telephone companies do not. There could be no more critical tests than those to which each article of telephone equipment is subjected.

It is significant that since the earliest days of the telephone, Exide Batteries have been entrusted with an important part in carrying telephone messages over the wires. Guided by such facts, you need never rely on guesswork when buying a new battery for your car. Is there any other battery which so thoroughly merits your confidence?

But do not buy any battery before you are sure a new one is really needed.

Remember this—good batteries as well as worn-out batteries run down. There is an Exide Battery designed to suit every car. The newest Exide is the HyCap—a battery of high capacity as its name suggests. It is specially designed to easily take care of the demands of your defroster, radio, heater, etc., and still have ample power for starting your car in any kind of weather. Look for the Exide Dealer Sign—a symbol of honest service.

"NERVOUS HEADACHES" RELIEVED TWO WAYS WITH "ASPIRIN"

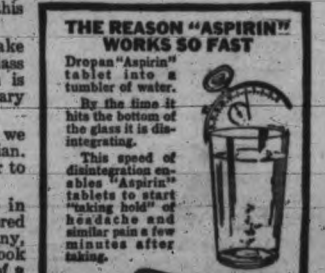

Insist on "Aspirin" and simply do this—

All people who suffer occasionally from headaches ought to know this way to quick relief.

At the first sign of such pain, take two "Aspirin" tablets with a half glass of water. Sometimes if the pain is more severe, another dose is necessary later, according to directions.

If headaches keep coming back we advise you to see your own physician. He will look for the cause in order to correct it.

"Aspirin" tablets are made in Canada. "Aspirin" is the registered trade-mark of the Bayer Company, Limited, of Windsor, Ontario. Look for the name Bayer in the form of a cross on every tablet.

THE REASON "ASPIRIN" WORKS SO FAST

Dropan "Aspirin" tablet into a tumbler of water. By the time it hits the bottom of the glass it is dissolving.

This speed of disintegration enables "Aspirin" tablets to start "taking hold" of the headache and similar pain a few minutes after taking.

Canvasser's brave struggle against STOMACH PAINS

THE writer of the letter below was in perpetual pain from stomach trouble, till he tried Maclean Brand Stomach Powder. Today he is a sound, healthy, happy man.

Canadians everywhere report relief from gnawing indigestion, burning, acid stomach, torturing "wind", almost from the first dose. Quickly they lose their dread of eating. Maclean Brand Stomach Powder helps to neutralize excess acidity, coats the inflamed stomach lining so that the stomach regains its normal activity.

"My job as a canvasser requires, above all, looking and being pleasant. Can anyone imagine anything more impossible while suffering from gastric trouble? After 4 years of continual suffering my job was getting me down and I was losing weight.

"One day I bought Maclean Brand Stomach Powder. The relief was so great I decided to carry on with it and now I can eat anything I fancy and my job is a pleasure."

Ontario Baby Is Paralysis Case

TORONTO (CP) — Ronald Leslie, 98 days old, has attained medical fame as the youngest infantile paralysis case ever admitted to a hospital here, and probably the youngest patient in the history of the disease.

The baby, both arms and legs paralyzed, is strapped to a frame two feet long, in splints so tiny they look as though they might have been designed for a doll. He is the child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Leslie Jr., who live on a farm near Streetsville, Ont.

FIRE LOSSES

TORONTO — Fire losses in Canada for the week ended November 3 were estimated by The Monetary Times at $417,400, compared with $540,125 in the preceding week, and with $163,500 in the corresponding week of 1936. Fire losses from January 1 to November 2 totaled $11,259,750, compared with $11,606,950 for the corresponding 1936 period.

She thought her washing was white...

WHEN you put ordinary washing against Pearl White Naptha washing, the difference almost hits you in the face!

Actual tests prove why. Pearl suds go right into the heart of the fabric. They float out the ingrained dirt—the dirt that ordinary soap leaves behind. So Pearl is bound to make things cleaner and whiter. Pearl Soap is more economical, too, because it makes quicker suds that stand up longer. These cleansing suds are so effective that you need only the lightest rubbing in warm water—no need to redden your hands with scalding heat.

And because Pearl White Naptha Soap works so gently it makes clothes last longer.

BRUHN HITS BEER SYSTEM

Tells Legislature Object of Liquor in B.C. to Produce
More Revenue

"I have no use for the present system of beer parlors. I know of no other country in the world where people just sit down and swill beer," said R. W. Bruhn, Independent, Salmon Arm, speaking in the Legislature yesterday.

"You can't even get a sandwich in the beer parlors. A lady can't even get a soft drink. They talk about liquor control—there is no control to what a man can buy. You can buy cases and then bootleg it on any corner. You are trying to get people to drink as much as possible, to get as much revenue as possible, because you have got to have it."

Mr. Bruhn was speaking of campaign funds and said he thought a public inquiry should be carried out by the government so that every man in public life could have his name cleared of disgrace. He hoped the Attorney-General would have the courage to start such an inquiry.

Mr. Bruhn said he thought the creation of a portfolio of trade and industry was unnecessary; that there was enough government already and the object should be to reduce costs instead of increase them.

He said he understood it was the intention to eliminate the riding of Salmon Arm, when other districts, "little pot-holes should be left intact, simply because they elected Liberals."

Several times Mr. Speaker Whittaker called Mr. Bruhn to order for his reference to a redistribution bill, which the Speaker said had not come before the House. The Premier arose to say that one of Mr. Bruhn's remarks was disrespectful to the House. The Speaker said he might be forced to ask Mr. Bruhn to continue his address if he continued his references to redistribution.

"As far as I understand," Mr. Bruhn said, "the British people have always set before them the high ideals of freedom, political freedom and freedom of thought, and I believe that with the changes that are taking place, it is the duty of men in public life and of those who have the opportunity of moulding public opinion, to more than ever try to maintain and justify those high ideals."

"It appears to me that instead of furthering such high ideals, we are rapidly drifting toward Fascism and dictatorship."

Mr. Bruhn said that Hitler and Mussolini had nothing on the party machine and that petty politicians were dragging people away from democratic government and the party system.

He said that while an Independent, he was at heart a Conservative and he believed that party had done the most for Canada.

Must Preserve Case Records

Only Court Orders Will Disclose Hospital Case Histories, Convention Decides

Charts or hospital records of any patient should not be available to any person or organization not connected with the hospital without court order, in the opinion of the B.C. Hospital Association.

A resolution advising hospitals to withhold such information was passed unanimously by the association in convention at the Empress Hotel yesterday.

The discussion arose particularly through the application of the Workmen's Compensation for hospital records of compensation patients.

Some delegates reported they often forwarded records to the board, which were necessary to prove hospitalization and collect from the board for the patient.

It was also reported that some municipalities seemed somewhat unreasonable in their requests for case histories before accepting responsibility for patients.

Speaking as secretary of the Union of B.C. Municipalities, R. F. Sewell said he thought a reasonable explanation from the hospitals would suffice for the municipalities. He promised co-operation with the association by circulating the municipalities to advise them that a doctor's certificate would be sufficient evidence upon which to base responsibility for a municipal case.

He said he would also request municipalities, for the association, not to seek too much of the confidential material regarding a patient's case history.

License Required
By Card Vendors

In response to complaints from Victoria concerns selling greeting cards, the city license inspector today issued a warning to people, particularly children, who are soliciting orders for concerns outside the city that they are liable for payment of a $50 license fee.

Merchants here claim eastern Canada companies are invading Victoria—territory and seriously cutting into the local business without paying the required fees.

The by-law does not apply to people selling for duly licensed local firms, since the concerns meet requirements in the way of fees through a blanket payment.

More Jews Needed In Palestine

Numbers Would Ensure Peace, Women Are Told

To attain peace in Palestine, Mrs. S. Gershon Levi, Montreal, believes it is necessary for the Jews to increase immigration into the Holy Land.

Speaking before the Victoria Hadassah Chapter in the vestry room of Temple Emmanuel yesterday evening, Mrs. Levi said that if the Jews became unified and attained strength of numbers there would be no need to fear the Arabs. On the contrary, the Arabs would be willing to co-operate.

The speaker pointed out the Arabs had learned much from the Jewish people both in agriculture and industry.

Over 1,500,000 Hebrews could be supported on Jewish territory in Palestine, Mrs. Levi said. The Zionist movement was endeavoring to have Jews throughout the world assist in buying land there.

Mrs. Levi spoke at length on the achievements of the average Jewish woman in caring for her family and aiding in the building up of the land and colonies. She also mentioned the successes that had been brought about by tireless work on the part of many of these women.

Following her address, Mrs. Levi answered questions. Mrs. Eli Bean was in the chair. The evening was concluded with the serving of refreshments.

Miriam Temple's Bridge Success

Fifteen tables were in play at the Shrine Hall yesterday afternoon when Miriam Temple No. 2 Daughters of the Nile held its annual bridge tea and bazaar yesterday afternoon. Mrs. M. Hemmingsen convened the affair and the rooms were effectively arranged with autumn flowers and foliage.

Mrs. H. Lillie, Queen of the Temple, received the guests. Bridge was under the supervision of Mrs. Walter Lunney, Mrs. J. A. Birnie and Mrs. R. McInnis, and the prizes were won as follows: Contract, first, Mrs. M. Stewart; consolation, Mrs. Peatt; auction, Mrs. E. Meiss first and Mrs. S. Jones consolation.

The stalls were convened as follows: Aprons, Mrs. R. Morrison; fancywork, Mrs. W. Handley and Mrs. Elliott; home cooking, Mrs. M. Roberts, S. McPherson and Mrs. H. Brown; candy, Mrs. A. McIlvride and Mrs. A. Humphries.

Tea was served by Mrs. D. Cameron, assisted by Mesdames A. Brown, B. Buckle and G. A. Stevens.

Modern Etiquette by ROBERTA LEE

1. Should a person using a telephone be careful to speak distinctly?
2. Is it good manners for a person in business to keep another person waiting on the telephone in order to show how busy he is?
3. Is it good telephone etiquette to answer a call with a rising inflection in the voice?
4. What may one say to the person who calls him on the telephone and neglects to give his name?
5. Does courtesy demand that the person who has completed a telephone conversation replace the receiver gently?

What would you do if—

- (a) Say, "Would you like to have him call you?"
- (b) Say, "May I take a message for him, please?"
- (c) Say, "Who is this?"

Answers

1. Yes. This is only courteous.
2. No. Bad manners and poor business!
3. Yes. A slight rise in the voice is pleasant-sounding.
4. "May I ask who is calling, please?" or "I am sorry, but I did not get your name."
5. Yes. Slamming a receiver on the hook is much like slamming a door in a caller's face. Best "What Would You Do?" solution—either (a) or (b).

Tells Work Of Mission Boats

Rev. Alan Greene, superintendent of the Columbia Coast Mission, gave a vivid description of the humanitarian work of the mission before a large and interested audience in the Memorial Hall last night. Bishop Sexton was in the chair.

The address was sponsored by the Anglican Young People's Association as their contribution towards the Community Chest on behalf of the mission. Mr. Greene seized the opportunity to pay a tribute to the young people for their practical interest in the work.

With the aid of films, shown by Ben Drew, secretary of the mission's headquarters in Vancouver, Mr. Greene told of the varied assistance given to the outlying settlements along the coast by the mission ships Columbia, John Antle and Rendezvous. He also spoke of the effective work being accomplished by Miss O'Brien and Miss Diben at Village Island.

The films also pictured scenes of industrial activity along the coast, including logging operations and seine-fishing, in addition to the work of the mission boats. Mr. Greene further enhanced the interest of his address with personal experiences encountered during his many years in this field.

She was attended by Miss Vera Sillman of Qualicum Beach, wearing a grey suit with sash of navy, a navy hat and accessories and a corsage bouquet of pink carnations and bouvardia. Mr. Louis Gillman of Seattle supported the bridegroom.

After the ceremony, a reception for relatives and intimate friends of the principals was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Prescott, Fort Street, the rooms being effectively arranged with autumn flowers. The buffet luncheon was served from a prettily-decorated table centred with the three-tiered wedding cake.

Later Mr. and Mrs. La Fay left for the mainland on a honeymoon trip and will make their home in Seattle.

Critique Lauds Victoria Singer

Mme. Eva Baird, well-known Victoria singer, who appeared before the Vancouver Musical Club on Wednesday afternoon for their opening concert of the season, received warm praise from R. J. Jameson, the noted critic.

In his critique in The Vancouver Province he said: "Mrs. Baird, who has not been heard in this city for some years, again revealed her sensitive musician-ship, fine regard for style, and interpretative values in two well-chosen groups—the first devoted to some familiar lieder by Schubert—Schumann, Brahms and Hugo Wolf; the second consisting of Grieg's 'The Last Spring' (in English), two effective French songs, namely Florent Schmitt's 'Tristesse au jardin' and Pierre de Breville's 'Une jeune fille parle,' concluding with Manuel de Falla's Spanish 'Jota.'"

"The singer was especially successful in the Schumann 'Stille tranen' and the Brahms 'Minne-lied,' her German diction, polished phrasing and expressive sense being well realized. In the Schmitt and de Breville songs Mrs. Baird was even more successful in capturing the composer's idiom. The de Falla song was invested with the necessary warmth and rhythmic urge.

"Thoroughly resourceful and sympathetic accompaniments for the singer were provided by Eileen Dumbleton."

The Emmanuel Baptist W.M.S. held its annual thanksgiving luncheon yesterday, under the convener'ship of Mrs. J. Arthur Armstrong, Mrs. P. Pinkerton, the president, was in the chair, and Mrs. F. W. McKinnon conducted the worship period. Rev. G. H. Reynolds gave an enlightening address on world affairs, and Mrs. J. V. Meston sang two solos, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Anstey. Mrs. A. H. Marion moved the vote of thanks to the speakers and soloists. Mrs. D. M. Thomson, treasurer, reported that the budget had been reached. Dr. A. S. Imrie closed the gathering with prayer.

"Y" Council Elects Its Officers

Miss Elsie Peters
President;
Progress Reported

A milestone of much interest in "Y" circles was reached last night as the retiring council met at supper with the new council for its annual meeting, Miss Edna Teagle being in the chair.

Special guests for the evening included Mrs. B. S. Heisterman, the president of the board of directors, Mrs. Richard Felton, convener of the Girls' Work Committee, and Miss Rhoda Craig, sponsor of the C.G.I.T. Girls' Council.

The inter-club Hallowe'en party was reported as having been very successful. The programme convener, Miss Frances Wood, gave a report of the plans for the mother and daughter tea, to be held in recognition of the week of world fellowship during November. It was announced by Miss Patsy Fatt, secretary of the council, that a week-end retreat for the council cabinet was being arranged to be held in the near future.

MISS ELSIE PETERS

This was followed by the annual report in which the secretary reviewed the inter-club events sponsored by the council during the past year. This report showed very encouraging progress in the girls' work department and indicated that the council had accomplished its aim by uniting the club groups in at least one inter-club function during each month throughout the year.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

The election of the new executive was held and the following officers elected: Miss Elsie Peters, president; Miss Jean Drummond, vice-president; Miss Kitty Cameron, secretary; Miss Grace Hall, treasurer; Miss Allison Smith, editor-in-chief of Y-Ways; Miss May Burns, programme convener; Miss Bea Dykes, social convener.

At the close of elections Miss Kirkwood, the general secretary, was presented to the council as the installation officer. In her inaugural address the responsibility as well as the privilege of becoming a member of the council executive was pointed out by Miss Kirkwood. A tribute was paid to the retiring executive for their very fine contribution made during the year in the girls' department.

In retiring from the chair Miss Edna Teagle expressed her appreciation for the support and unfailing co-operation she had received during her term of office from the retiring council, and wished the new council, under the leadership of Miss Elsie Peters, every success for the coming year.

TELFORD RAPS GOVERNMENT

C.C.F. Member Challenged to Furnish Information On Stock Charge

When Dr. J. Lyle Telford, C.C.F. Vancouver-East, suggested in the British Columbia Legislature that the government might have "another Hedley fiasco" on its hands, he was immediately challenged by Attorney-General Wismer to submit full information to the department so action could be taken to stop it. Dr. Telford promised to do so.

In his two-hour-and-ten-minute speech, Dr. Telford covered a wide range of subjects, from marketing to liquor prices; from the Fraser River Bridge to the cost of living.

He quoted The Nanaimo Herald about a purported political campaign fund contribution of $150 per barrel on beer sales in the province and said the government should not leave such statements unchallenged.

He questioned why the government was not interested in establishment of a new brewery at Nanaimo, which offered "cheaper and better beer," and said there was $500,000 a year extra revenue available for the treasury if it were accepted.

He declared the cost of living was much higher in British Columbia than elsewhere with steaks, soda biscuits and a list of other products more expensive. Flour and bread was higher because of the "flour and milling combine."

He criticized the government for its unemployed prison camps, charged political tactics in increasing road expenditures at election time, and said the reason the highway commission plan had been shelved was because it would deprive the government of its "political patronage racket."

He said the government had been offered gasoline at 6 cents a gallon but had refused to go into the distribution business because it was not interested, but had been interested enough in beer distribution to turn down the Nanaimo brewery offer.

Dr. Telford said agricultural marketing schemes were no good and that British Columbia should produce goods efficiently enough to compete in all markets. He deplored the export of raw logs as tragic, and demanded a proper forest policy to stop waste.

The incubus of the Liberal Party had prevented Hon. G. M. Weir bringing in a decent health insurance bill, he said.

He claimed that government revenue from the gasoline tax and motor licenses was $3,000,000, more than enough to cover maintenance and road debts, and said the tourist traffic was overplayed because there was an actual adverse balance against British Columbia in the number of cars going out and coming into the province.

He asserted the government had refused to buy bridge timbers for the P.G.E. railway at $12 per 1,000, because it wanted to buy from small local mills, and then had purchased the same timber at $18 per 1,000. Freight rates on the P.G.E. were enormously high, nine times greater from Lillooet to Vancouver than from Calgary to Victoria on the C.N.R.

He advocated the government take over the distribution of gasoline, the manufacturing as well as selling of liquor, control of public utilities, start a big housing scheme, put in compulsory automobile insurance, and take over elevators and mills from the "milling combine."

Dr. Telford quoted at intervals from several pastboard volumes of press clippings and was checked twice by Hon. George S. Pearson for what the minister said were incorrect quotations. If the press were unreliable it was time to consider suppressing them, Dr. Telford replied.

Committee On Compensation

Hospitals' Convention Names Group to Deal With Board Cases

Following upon the suggestion of Dr. H. H. Murphy, radiologist at the Jubilee Hospital, during a luncheon address on Wednesday, the British Columbia Hospitals' Association yesterday approved the appointment of a committee of three to deal with the Workmen's Compensation Board in connection with compensation case disputes.

This committee will be authorized to deal with the board in arbitration of such cases and its purpose will be to promote a greater understanding between the hospital and the board.

Appointment of another committee to study and compile information on hospital contracts, such information to be made available for member hospitals, was also approved.

Compensation from the government for hospitals whose operating costs will be increased by the new system of accounting introduced under the Hospitals Act regulations, was sought in another resolution.

The convention felt this new system tended towards reduction of revenues and increase in cost and felt hospitals were entitled to a little extra government aid because of this fact.

Italy Observes Armistice Day

ROME (AP)—Italy made the observance Thursday of the anniversary of her own Great War armistice the occasion for a dig at her former allies, Great Britain and France.

Newspapers generally emphasized that Italy's defeat of the Austro-Hungarian army at Vittorio Veneto preceded the armistice on the Western Front by a week.

"Vittorio Veneto," said the newspaper Il Popolo di Roma, "signified simply this: the end of the Great War with the crushing, absolute victory of the Allied and Associated Powers."

"For this reason the French and English, who celebrate November 11, the anniversary of the Armistice of Sedan, as the end of the war are seven days behind time."

Egg-throwers Annoy Vancouver Chinese

VANCOUVER (CP)—They haven't asked police help yet, but Vancouver Chinese are getting a little annoyed.

Five or six times in the last two weeks an automobile has speeded through the East End Chinatown district, its occupants throwing eggs—very old—at the bulletin boards where news from the Oriental battlefronts is posted.

Spokesmen for the Chinese Benevolent Association said they had no idea who was throwing the eggs. Discreetly, they declined to admit present hostilities between Japan and China might have anything to do with the "insult."

Green Estate At Last Settled

NEW YORK (AP)—Settlement of a long court-battle over the $40,000,000 to $60,000,000 estate of the late Col. Edward H. R. Green was announced Thursday night by Surrogate Harry E. Owens of Essex County.

The surrogate awarded the bulk of the estate to Mrs. Matthew Astor Wilks, a sister, who he said in turn had agreed to pay $500,000 to the widow of Col. Green, Mrs. Harlow Green.

Surrogate Owen rejected the widow's contention that a prenuptial agreement waiving her rights to a dower interest in Col. Green's fortune had been procured through fraud.

He ordered the colonel's will, naming his sister principal legatee, admitted to probate.

Astronomers have found nothing so satisfactory for making a system of fine guiding lines on a telescope, as a spider web.

By PETE SALLAWAY

THE FOOTBALL pools industry is today the fastest growing business in Britain. In 15 years it has reached a turnover of $3,750,000 a week, $150,000,000 in a single season. The football pool in its present state was evolved by J. J. Barnard of Birmingham. He was followed shortly by others in the pool business. They eventually introduced the penny pool, which automatically increased their number of clients by thousands. It also increased the staffs and today 30,000 people are regularly employed by the operators of the pools.

In the offices of the major pools there are machines which strip the envelopes from the coupons; machines which can handle 4,000 envelopes an hour. Each week of the football season, 16,000,000 envelopes leave the pool headquarters, which means $875,000 a week in postage, and it is estimated that 12,000,000 replies are returned. In each of these 12,000,000 envelopes there is a postal order which, according to statistics, averages around 60 cents.

Since the pools began the sales of postal orders has increased enormously. In 1925 the sales of sixpenny orders amounted to $20,000,000. Ten years later, the amount has jumped to $115,000,000. The shilling orders, meanwhile, had risen from $40,000,000 to $175,000,000. So it can be seen that the post office makes a tidy sum out of the football pools.

There is a friendly little bit of brotherly managerial rivalry going on in Victoria sport this winter. The principals are Bert Buller, who is leading the James Bay Athletic Association entry in the senior rugby league, and Art Buller, manager of the Liberty Cafe squad in the men's senior B division of the Victoria and District Basketball League.

At the present time the two brothers have their charges out in front. And both outfits boast undefeated records. Speaking for his rugby squad, Bert said: "I got over a big hurdle when the boys beat those Oak Bay Wanderers last Saturday." Brother Art came back with: "My boys really came through when they whipped West Road." The two brothers have a little wager on which team will be the first to take it on the chin.

Sport ramblings: Detroit baseball fans are giving owner Walter O. Briggs the old razzberry for proposing to change the name of the Detroit Tigers' ball park from Navin Field to Briggs Stadium. Max Schmeling, German heavyweight fighter and former world champion, sailed for New York today. We hope this trip will be more successful than the last, when he engaged in that famous ghost fight with Jimmy Braddock. ... Fight men say Joe Gould, manager of Braddock, has picked himself one of the best heavyweight prospects in young Tom Beupre, Dallas. ... Sylvia Sidney, the screen actress, all but stopped traffic in front of the Hippodrome in New York the other day when she paused to admire photos of Bronko Nagurski, Chief Little Wolf and other wrestlers.

DELANEY IN BOXING WIN

Canadian Heavyweight Outpoints Baines in London After Slow Scrap

LONDON—Al Delaney, Canadian heavyweight boxer, Wednesday night outpointed Norman Baines of Great Britain in a colorless 10-round scrap at Harringay Stadium before 7,000 fans. Although giving away more than 40 pounds, Delaney easily earned the decision over his opponent who is also known in fistic circles as Pat Barry.

Baines was tough but slow-footed and with no power in his punches due to bad timing. The Oshawa-born Delaney merely made him miss repeatedly and occasionally scored himself with left leads. Delaney weighed 183 and Baines 224.

Blank Chicago As Toronto Battles Detroit To Draw

New York Club Sinks Black Hawks 3 to 0; Schriener Scoring Star

Barry Saves Wings

The first head has been sliced open, the first leg cracked up and the National League is off to another season of the reformed rioting they call hockey, with New York Americans snapping up all the honors in the first evening of jousting.

Red Dutton's hard-fighting New Yorkers scored a 3 to 0 win over Chicago Black Hawks, their companion cellar team last season, while the world champion Detroit Red Wings were saving themselves from a beating at Toronto with Marty Barry's last-minute goal. His long dribbling shot gave them a 2 to 2 tie with Maple Leafs.

Barry and Sweeney Schriener of Americans, last year's scoring champions, shone in the first skirmishing, both bagging a pair of goals to resume the battle for point leadership they staged last season. Schriener ended up then with two points more than the Detroiters.

KARAKAS INJURED

The first head broken open belongs to Mike Karakas, Chicago netminder, who also holds the distinction of being the only Lithuanian in the league. On a goal-mouth play in the first period at Chicago, someone's skate ripped open Karakas's forehead and five stitches were needed before he could continue.

The first leg of a dozen or more that will be put out of business during the season is attached to Gordon Pettenger of Detroit Redwings. Heavily checked by Reg. Hamilton of Leafs, Pettenger suffered an injury that will keep him out of the game for some time. It will not be known until later today whether the bone is broken.

After the way their defence worked at Chicago and considering they signed Hooley Smith last night, New York Americans may yet demand consideration as play-off possibilities.

Against Hawks they seemed to have plenty to spare on the attack. Schriener scored in the first period on Art Chapman's pass and again in the third with Joe Jorman's help. Johnny Gallagher, their new defenceman from Detroit, scored their third goal.

Hawks, playing for the first time under the direction of Bill Stewart, the league's former chief referee, presented a ragged defence and their attack could do little with Dutton's rearguard. Summaries follow:

AMERICANS-CHICAGO
First Period—1, Americans, Schriener (Chapman), 13:52.
Second Period—No score. Penalty: Shill.

Third Period—2, Americans, Schriener (Jerwa), 11:02; 3, Americans, Gallagher (Anderson, Klein), 13:03.

TORONTO-DETROIT
First Period—No score. Penalty: Hamilton.
Second Period—1, Toronto, Metz (Chamberlain), 8:19. Penalty: Bowman.
Third Period—2, Detroit, (Barry, Sorrell), 4:59; 3, Toronto, Fowler (Drillon), 13:24; 4, Detroit, Barry (Aurie), 19:45. Penalty: Young.

Overtime Period—No score.

SOCCER MATCH
Hill's Corner and Mount Talmie soccer teams will clash tomorrow in a Merchants' League match at Gladstone Avenue grounds. P. J. Woodley will referee. The kick-off is set for 2.

AMERKS GET SMITH
NEW YORK (CP)—Reginald (Hooley) Smith, a veteran of the National Hockey League wars, came out for his 14th season in the big time in a new livery—the star-spangled attire of New York Americans.

Management of the New York club made known last night they had acquired the Hooley from Boston, where he played one sea-

WANDERERS TO BATTLE NAVY

Sailors Will Make Season Debut in Senior Rugby League Tomorrow

If there is any fly in the present Barnard Cup rugby dope which rates the Oak Bay Wanderers and the J.B.A.A. as the teams to beat, it will be discovered tomorrow at Macdonald Park when the Navy will make its season debut against the first-mentioned rugger.

Rumors have it the Navy is one of the strongest and fastest squads yet turned out of Esquimalt and local fans should expect a good battle.

NAVY DARK HORSE

A dark horse as far as actual playing is concerned, on paper, the sailors look powerful. Reg Mylrea, Regina grid star, has been assigned the fullback position and has a reputation of being a safe tackler and excellent kicker. The three-quarter line will include Smith, Briggs, Bigelow and Downs. The scrum half position will be played by Archer, a former Old Country rugger, while Jack Cosier, who played with the Fifth Brigade intermediates, will be in stand-off position.

The pack will include Corbin, Rutherford, McCrae, Banfield, Nelson, Fisher, Little and Mansfield.

George Warnock has made a couple of changes in the Wanderers' line-up and figures his boys will take the sailors.

On the lower field at Macdonald Park the Garrison senior B rugger will play the Navy. In the intermediate league Victoria College is scheduled to meet the Canadian Scottish. Oak Bay Wanderers will play the Navy at Admirals Road.

All matches will begin at 3. Line-ups follow:

Oak Bay Wanderers (Senior A)—Grogan, Carney, B. Murdoch, Barber, Brown, McConnan, G. Murdoch, Acland, Buckler, Moore, Thompson, Colthurst, Forbes, McGregor and Gornall. Spares: Stevens and Turner.

Oak Bay Wanderers (Intermediate)—Davies, Miller, Cook, Page, Olsen, Clarke, Evans, Tyhurst, Langton, Painter, Pearce, Davey, McKay, Ley, Palin and McDonald.

Players are asked to meet at the clubhouse at 2:15. Canadian Scottish (Intermediates)—Sorenson, Jones, Bishop, Martin, Hughes, Oddy, MacLean, Cox, Holland, Fisher, Clarkson, Williams, Wilson, Malcolm and Cavett. Spare, Fraser.

ATHLETE DIES

VANCOUVER—Kenneth David Currie, 28-year-old New Westminster athlete, died in hospital here yesterday. He had been ill about a month.

Currie was a member of the New Westminster Adanacs basketball team.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Currie of New Westminster; two brothers and one sister.

At 7:15 First United Juniors will face Y.M.C.A. boys, while the Bombers and Y.M.C.A. will meet in the second game in the intermediate division. The final tussle will bring together Klausner and Son and Eight Aces.

HUSKIES WILL BATTLE BEARS

Washington and California Grid Squads in Big Clash Tomorrow

SAN FRANCISCO—Gleeful supporters riding the University of California bandwagon on the road toward the Rose Bowl picked the unbeaten Bears to knock over Washington tomorrow in the most important of three Pacific Coast Conference football games.

Despite the probable loss of star halfback Vic Bottari, who has a bad "charley horse," the Bears were top heavy favorites over the Huskies, who have lost two conference games, won one and tied one.

Stanford's Indians, fired up to their highest spirit this season, will meet Southern California's Trojans on about even terms at Los Angeles. Stanford is still in second place behind California despite a drab, scoreless tie with Oregon State last Saturday. The Trojans' sad record includes two defeats.

Another fairly evenly-matched affair will pit Oregon's Webfeet, in the conference cellar with three defeats and a single victory, against Washington State College at Portland. Oregon rested last week-end while the Cougars, beaten only by California but tied twice, have had four tough games in a row.

Two major undefeated teams will put their records on the block when Santa Clara's Broncos take on little San Jose State College at San Jose and Montana's Grizzlies clash with Gonzaga at Missoula.

Bill Murphy, colorful hoopster, who appeared with Cammarano's, will be on hand again, and will do the centre-spot jumping for the Alpines. Other well-known players such as Bob Egge, Jack Gannon and Chuck Wagner, members of last year's University of Washington team, are included on the line-up, while Tom Werner, Roy Williamson, Ralph Cairney and George Fredericks will also be on hand for duty. The Dominoes will have all their regulars on hand.

Soccer Teams To Be Busy Tomorrow

Complete Programme in All Leagues: Wednesday League Names Rep Eleven

Senior, juvenile and intermediate football teams will all be active tomorrow. In the first division the Victoria West, undefeated league leaders, tackle the Saanich Thistles at Heywood Avenue, with Dave Swan as referee, and Victoria City play Esquimalt at the Athletic Park with J. C. Dowds as referee.

Three matches will start at 2:45. Both matches are billed in the Intermediate League, with James Island playing the Cooperage at Victoria West Park, Young Liberals opposing Navy at upper Beacon Hill, and the Bapcos and Camerons battling at Hampton Road. Matches start at 2:30.

Teams follow:

Victoria City—Rowe, Moody, Roper, Cliff Robbins, Peers, Moore, Youson, Glancy, Payne, Brandow, Cummings, Gibson, J. Robbins and J. Smith.

Bluebirds—Macintosh, Rivers, Pickford, Rowe, Young, Clarke, Campbell, Bamford, Ballam, Prior, Hickman, Horne, Rundell and Hickman.

SELECT TEAM

Officials of the Wednesday Football League got together last night and named the all-star 11 to represent the mid-weekers in the Ansecomb Cup match against a picked squad from the Victoria (Turn to Page 14, Col. 6)

English Elevens in Several Trades; Arsenal Secures Jones, Welsh Star

LONDON—It was left to a small-time club to surprise English soccer circles this week. Ipswich Town, game little southern league team with designs on reaching third division status, offered East Ham, Manchester United manager, a seven-year contract at £1,500 ($7,455).

Duncan has undertaken to manage the Town provided he gets his release from the Mancunians. For a club in Ipswich's status to offer such a sum is unprecedented, but it has the backing of Captain R. Cobbold, wealthy businessman. Duncan was on the Newcastle-United team that won the English Cup in 1910, and has played for several Scottish clubs, including Rangers and Hamilton Academicals.

The slipping Arsenal squad is out to stay with the championship contenders in the major league. The Gunners sent Robert Davidson and £2,000 ($9,940) to Coventry City for the transfer of Leslie Jones, Welsh international inside right and one of the smartest players in the country. Davidson was brought to London a few years ago from St. Johnstone, Scottish League club, at a cost of £5,000 ($24,859).

LEADERS SHOULD WIN

In ninth place, four points behind the leading Chelsea and Brentford squads, Arsenal makes the long journey to Grimsby at the week-end with Jones on the line-up. Both leaders may come through with maximum points. The Pensioners are at home to Sunderland at Stamford Bridge, and Brentford visits Liverpool, one of the tail-end outfits.

Leeds United will include 17-year-old David Cochrane, Portadown outside right, in its team to meet Blackpool. The youngster is said to be the finest winger in the Irish League and his transfer cost the Yorkshiremen £3,000 ($14,910).

The unbeaten Coventry City team with a record of seven victories and six draws is likely to maintain its two-point lead in the second division against Bradford. Aston Villa, tied with Sheffield United for the runner-up position, is away to Bury.

Millwall's stirring rise in the third division, southern section, may be given a setback tomorrow. The Londoners go to Mansfield, a club hard to beat on its own ground. Lincoln City and Gateshead are running neck-and-neck in the northern circuit. Both teams have away games, the former against Rochdale and its rival against Accrington Stanley.

HIGH SCORERS

Goal-scoring honors in the major league are held by D. McCulloch; Brentford's Scottish international, who has sent in 14 to date. A similar number is credited to H. Clifton, Chesterfield, in the second division. Third division sharpshooters are C. Crawshaw, Mansfield Town, in the southern section, and J. Campbell, Lincoln City, in the northern loop. Each has netted 12 times.

SCOTTISH LEAGUE

GLASGOW—Unbeaten since September 15, when Arbroath won a close game 2 to 1, Motherwell in the thick of things since the Scottish Football League campaign opened, goes into tomorrow's match at Dundee with a one-point margin at the top of the circuit.

The Fir Park squad has crowded in 15 matches to date with two entries in the loss column. It has gained maximum points in nine with four tilts ended in draws for a total of 22 points.

Although below form in last week's 1 to 1 deadlock with Hibernians, Motherwell is favored to take the decision from (Turn to Page 14, Col. 6)

GRID SQUADS AFTER BERTH

Keen Scrap in East For Play-off Position in Inter-provincial Union

TORONTO (CP)—The questions to be answered on the east's football books this week centres around the Interprovincial Union where the fight for a second play-off berth is as scrambled as eggs on a breakfast plate.

With two weeks to play, Toronto Argonauts have captured one Big Four playoff spot. That is the only sure thing about the union's standing for Ottawa, Montreal and Hamilton all are within two points of each other for the coveted second place. A ready solution to the pileup would be victories tomorrow for Argos in Montreal and Tigers at home. There is a growing conviction that University of Toronto Blues are the college union's outstanding team. So no one expects McGill Redmen to do anything to upset that belief at Toronto while the Western Mustangs and Queen's settle their differences at Kingston.

Sarnia Imperials have a return date at home with Hamilton Panthers—which is nice for Imperials. Last week they whipped the inexperienced Panthers 24 to 6 and they should find it at least as easy to roll up that margin again for their seventh straight Ontario-Union championship.

Because they are scheduled to meet in the last game of the regular league season, Ottawa or Montreal eventually must fall by the Big Four wayside. But to bring that forthcoming clash into the crucial stage, they also must win tomorrow. Both face the toughest assignments.

MISS WYNNE WINS

DUNCAN—The women members of the Cowichan Golf Club have inaugurated a C class, and appointed Mrs. A. S. Irvine as captain. They will play each month for a medal, and at the end of the year the winners will play for a cup donated by Mrs. F. G. Aldersay. They had their first nine-hole competition on Wednesday afternoon which was won by Miss M. Wynne with a net score of 39.

the loop's early-season pace-maker.

Second-place Hearts are up against a tough proposition. They are scheduled to meet Aberdeen at Pittodrie Park. The Dons, runner-up last year, are making a determined comeback after a poor start in August. The result of tomorrow's tussle may go either way.

Only unbeaten team in both divisions, Rangers should prove successful against the weakened Kilmarnock outfit. The Killies ran into tough luck last week when two regulars, one the goalkeeper, required hospital attention, after their 2 to 2 deadlock with Clyde.

Partick Thistle meets Celtic in a Glasgow derby at Parkhead. Chances favor the cupholders, but Partick is always capable of springing a surprise. Another Glasgow match will be played at Hampden Park, home of Queen's Park. Morton provides the opposition.

With only two points separating them, Falkirk and St. Johnstone tangle on the former's ground.

In second division warfare, Raith Rovers and Albion Rovers are topheavy favorites to turn in game-winning efforts. Raith leader of the division by one point, meets Edinburgh City, placed near the bottom and Albion goes to Dumbarton.

FIRE LOSSES IN CITY LOW

October Figure Among Smallest in History of City; One Fire of $105

Fire losses in Victoria during October were among the lowest in the history of the city, according to figures issued by the fire department this morning.

During the month there was only one fire with loss, and the damage was estimated at $105. Losses in October, 1936, amounted to $904.73.

Thirty-nine calls were received during the month, of which 10 were false alarms. In this connection, the department is gratified that only two false alarms were turned in at Halloween. Eight of the calls were from Oak Bay.

There were 537 calls, 68 of them from Oak Bay, during the ten-month period, and there were 65 fires involving loss.

During October officers of the department visited all the public and private schools of the city and carried out drills. A detailed inspection of school fire prevention facilities was made, and the pupils were addressed. Fire Prevention Week, involving publicity in the press, over the radio and in theatres, also came during the month.

Both men were members of a drinking party that ended in the death of Stanley McGee, Indian, at nearby Ramsay Arm last Sunday. No arrests have been made in the McGee shooting, and police are continuing investigating.

Sentence And Fine on Liquor

POWELL RIVER, B.C. (CP)—Sverre Mauritz Hosstad, rigger, contractor, today was being taken to the Oakalla prison near Vancouver to serve a three-month sentence for supplying liquor to Indians.

Hosstad also paid a $200 fine when he pleaded guilty to the charge. Francis Louie, an Indian, was fined $25 and costs for drunkenness.

Both men were members of a drinking party that ended in the death of Stanley McGee, Indian, at nearby Ramsay Arm last Sunday. No arrests have been made in the McGee shooting, and police are continuing investigating.

New Seattle Bar On Communists

SEATTLE (AP)—Mayor John E. Dore today banned the use of the Civic Auditorium by the Communist Party "at any time." The mayor ordered Building Supt. H. C. Ritzman to cancel a reservation for a November 10 evening meeting, which had been widely advertised on billboards throughout the city as an Armistice Day gathering.

"You will not permit the use of the auditorium by the Communist Party on November 10, or at any other time," he wrote. "The idea is revolting to all patriotic citizens."

SCOUT NEWS

Progress in the erection of the new scout hall was reported at an executive meeting of the Royal Oak group of Boy Scouts in Canada, held recently. It was announced, however, that construction may have to be suspended until more funds are available.

The scoutmaster reported excellent progress in the formation of the Wolf Cub pack.

In a statement yesterday, Mayor Andrew McGavin denied charges, made at a recent Oak Bay Council meeting, that the city made a large profit on the sale of water. The mayor expressed the belief Oak Bay made a considerable sum from the sale of water in that municipality over and above the cost of the supply. He stated the city was considering raising the Oak Bay rate to help care for the heavy overhead in the waterworks system.

Police to Check Cycling Offences

Police in the city and its three suburban municipalities are clamping down on cyclists who violate the traffic regulations.

In disobeying the regulations they were endangering not only themselves but also the operators of automobiles who might be driving with full care, Magistrate Henry Hall told four youths who pleaded guilty in Saanich Police Court yesterday afternoon to riding after dark without lights. They were fined $1 each.

Chief of Police Thomas Heatley this morning listed riding without lights, failing to give proper signals, not keeping properly to the right-hand side of the road, not stopping at stop signs, and riding on sidewalks as the principal offenses of cycle riders in the city.

"It is not fair to motorists," he said. A motorcyclist officer has been detailed by city police to keep a special watch on the riding of cyclists.

Wide Interest In Stock Control Plan

Attorney-General Gordon Wismer's proposals to tighten the Securities Act against stock frauds raised widespread interest today and loomed as one of the major issues for discussion at the present session of the British Columbia Legislature.

Stockbrokers, the exchange, and mining men both here and in Vancouver were busy today studying newspaper reports of the amendments and seeking more information.

It is generally expected many of them will want to make representations in the changes and probably a committee of the House will be instructed to hear them, as suggested by the Attorney-General.

Police Guarding School Pupils

STREETVILLE, Ont. (CP)—Another note purporting to be from the Streetville ghouls who sole a body from a grave here a few weeks ago was pinned to the door of Mrs. A. J. Crawford's home Thursday night. It told Mrs. Crawford to take her children from school and to leave town or else.

Town Constable Roy Elderfield guarded the three Crawford children on their way to school today. The Crawford family said several threatening notes had been received by their daughter at high school, arising, they allege, from jealousies among the students.

NEW YORK (AP)—A leading custom smelter today reduced the price of copper to 11 cents a pound from 11½ cents, following weakness of prices on the London metal exchange. The price of export copper also dropped to 10.25 cents compared with 10.35 cents yesterday.

Neutral Zone Now at Shanghai

SHANGHAI (AP)—Negotiations to create a haven for non-combatants in northern Nantao, the native quarter south of the French Concession, were successfully concluded today and an agreement was signed. It was understood policing of Nantao would be in the hands of Chinese under direction of the International Red Cross refugee committee.

DISAGREE ON RELIEF CASES

Sharp Difference Between City and Provincial Officials on Responsibility

Disagreement between the city's relief office and officials of the provincial department over responsibility for certain cases turned back upon the city by the province recently, was discussed again in Mayor Andrew McGavin's office today.

The officials of the two departments were scheduled to meet this afternoon to go further into the matter.

Seven cases in particular were cause of argument at the meeting between W. G. Stone of the provincial department and E. G. Snowden, city relief officer. Alderman John Worthington, relief committee chairman, and Mayor Andrew McGavin today.

The city objected specifically to one case, responsibility for which officials of the provincial department seek to make retroactive.

Unless some settlement were reached at this afternoon's meeting, the issue was expected to come to a head with the entire council studying the question.

New Accounting Forms Approved

Hospitals' Association Adopts Changes Under Regulations Amendments

The British Columbia Hospitals' Association this morning took the lead in Canada in approving the adoption of a uniform system of accounting in hospitals of the Dominion for the purposes of filing statistical returns to the provincial and federal governments.

Hospitals of the province thus became the first business institutions to unify their financing in order that their returns might be accurately comparable to other hospitals of the Dominion.

The new accounting forms were introduced under the Amendments to Hospitals' Act regulations and their adoption was recommended by the Canadian Hospitals' Council at its annual meeting this year.

The resolution approving their use came this morning after a prolonged discussion yesterday on the new regulations.

Copies of the resolution will be sent to the Provincial Secretary and the Canadian Hospitals' Council. Other provincial associations will be asked to take similar action.

Another resolution endorsed this morning was one supporting the move of the Provincial Secretary in attempting to check tuberculosis spread among Indians in the province.

States Cabins Here Sanitary

Not Ideal, But Habitable, Medical Health Officer Says

The city health department appreciates the room for improvement in housing conditions in Victoria, particularly in respect of cabins, Dr. Richard Felton, city health officer, stated today. But, he added, the cabins were sanitary.

His remarks were made in answer to questions raised by Mrs. Dorothy Steves on the floor of the Legislature last Tuesday.

"The cabins in Victoria are in a sanitary condition and fit for habitation," Dr. Felton stated. "There are about half a dozen sets of cabins in the city which rent for approximately $4 a month. The health department realizes they are not ideal dwellings, but if they were demolished or condemned, those living in them would be forced into more expensive quarters which, in the majority of cases, they cannot afford," he said, adding, "this department would be pleased to see such structures removed if financial arrangements were made to care for their occupants."

St. Aidan's Tillamook Club met in the assembly hall Monday evening, when election of officers took place as follows: Barbara Dawson, president; Bob Clarke, vice-president; Laurie Rendle, secretary; Ivy Salter, treasurer; Mrs. Griffiths, pianist; Cleo Westrum, assistant pianist; William Lewis and Marjorie Griffiths, sick committee; Bob Clarke, devotional convener, and Cleo Westrum, correspondent. A committee was appointed to take charge of the novelty booth at the bazaar to be held in November.

C. S. Leary, chairman, and R. H. Carson, secretary of the forestry committee of the Provincial Legislature, were this morning named a delegation to interview the Minister of Lands and the chief forester, to discuss possible recommendations which the Department of Lands may have to make in an effort to save the forests of British Columbia.

Mr. Manning, in reply to questions, said the laws regarding lumbering would have to be strengthened. Many of the companies, he said, were desirous of leaving their lands in good condition.

He said the coast region was the worst sore point and that the department was struggling to reduce the adverse acreage of barren lands. He said the land would not be made 100 per cent productive, but he thought there was a happy medium.

Mr. Manning left the committee to interview, with Hon. A. Wells Gray, Minister of Lands, a delegation from the lumbering industry. It was the second meeting in a week and its discussions were not made public.

To Erect Stand In St. Joseph's

In connection with placing blind people in remunerative employment, the Canadian Institute for the Blind has just completed arrangements whereby a concession stand will be opened in the St. Joseph's Hospital through the generosity of the sisters. Jack Atwood, a young blind resident of Victoria, who attended the school for the blind in Vancouver, will be there to serve the public, patients and members of the staff with tobacco, candies, etc.

S. J. Evans, business manager of the institute, this morning reported that this is the third stand that has been erected in Victoria, the others being at the Parliament Buildings and the Jubilee Hospital. He also said there are now 271 such stands throughout the Dominion.

DOG ENTRIES PROVE HEAVY

Record List Expected For Championship Show to Be Held Next Saturday

Officials in charge of the annual fall championship show of the Victoria City Kennel Club to be held next Saturday are enthused over the number of entries already received. Entries to date are far in excess of previous years for the same period and a record is looked for.

The show is being staged under the auspices of the Junior W.A. to the Jubilee Hospital.

The prize list is particularly favorable towards the puppies, and in this respect no less than eight of the specials will go to them. The handsome cup donated by the city of Victoria will again be up for competition for Canadian-bred dogs, as well as the Canadian Kennel Club trophy for the best Canadian-bred puppy, and the Victoria City Kennel Club trophy for the best entered in the Canadian-bred classes. There will be two fine prizes for the children's classes, one for boys and one for girls. No entry fee for these classes will be charged and any child may compete. The only stipulation is that the dogs are entered in one or more of the regular classes.

Provision is made in the classification for ever recognized breed of dog, whether pedigreed or not, and all classes are open to anyone whether they belong to the club or not.

For the benefit of those requiring assistance in completing their entry forms and for receiving last minute entries, the secretary will be at the MacFarlane drug store the evening of November 6 from 7 to 10. Information may be obtained by phoning TE 2536.

London Honors Earl Baldwin

Former British Prime Minister Presented With Address in Gold Casket

LONDON (CP)—In stately pomp and pageantry, the city of London today paid tribute to Earl Baldwin for his many years of public service to the Empire. The former Prime Minister was presented with a gold casket containing an address, illuminated on parchment.

Richly robed in gold and black, the Lord Mayor, Sir George Broadbridge, recalled Lord Baldwin's "eminent service to the country and empire."

White-gloved members of the city land committee, carrying silver-topped staves and wearing blue mazarine gowns trimmed with fur, welcomed Lord Baldwin at the medieval entrance to the Guildhall.

He was conducted into the historic Great Hall past gowned common councillors to the dais, where he was greeted by the Lord Mayor surrounded by sheriffs and high civic dignitaries clad in scarlet fur.

Mr. Manning, in reply to questions, said the laws regarding lumbering would have to be strengthened. Many of the companies, he said, were desirous of leaving their lands in good condition.

He said the coast region was the worst sore point and that the department was struggling to reduce the adverse acreage of barren lands. He said the land would not be made 100 per cent productive, but he thought there was a happy medium.

The recorder of London read the address, which the Lord Mayor then presented in the gold casket similar to those in which the city presents its freedom to distinguished guests. Lord Baldwin had already received the honorary freedom of the city in 1923.

The casket bears the arms of the city and of Lord Baldwin and decorations symbolizing the statesman's activities.

Following the ceremony a procession, including Lord Baldwin and officials of the city, drove in ornate coaches to the Mansion House for luncheon.

During the months of November, December, January, February, March and April, the Provincial Museum will not be open on Sundays.

CALLING ALL DOGS

By
ALBERT PAYSON TERHUNE

Did you ever go barefoot in summer when you were a child?
If you did, you will remember the sharp pain of walking over a field of fresh stubble or of stepping on a pointed stone or a shard of glass. Also, you can't have forgotten how a stone-bruise feels.
Well, your dog must go barefoot.
Every few days, take a good look at all four of his feet. Not only at the calloused pads, but between the pads and in the tender spaces between his claws.
Generally, you will find them in fairly good condition. But sometimes, you won't. There may be a crack in one pad, caused by glass or other cutting surfaces.
There may be a thorn or even a tack driven up to the end, in a pad or between two pads.

Soreness, from some undiscovered cause, may have started a bad inflammation between his toes. There may be traces of a bruise. None of these things is trivial—to him, at least. Any of them may lead to permanent lameness if they are not attended to promptly. When winter comes, he is almost certain to accumulate lumps of snow or ice, every now and then, in the hollow spaces of his feet. Remove these, gently, and at once.

Unless he is badly lamed by any of these mishaps, he can't tell you he is in trouble. You must look out for it yourself.

KING GORDON

Professor Will Make Third
Try to Obtain Victoria Seat in Commons

PROFESSOR J. KING GORDON

The unanimous nomination of all C.C.F. clubs in Victoria for the forthcoming Dominion by-election was last night given Professor J. King Gordon for the third time in little more than two years.

Mr. Gordon ran at the general election in October, 1935, and in a by-election in June, 1936.

The Victoria District Council of the C.C.F. met in the Chamber of Commerce to give the nomination to Mr. Gordon. Previously various clubs had voted, the choice of all falling on Professor Gordon.

Prof. Gordon, on his way west from Montreal, stopped off at Winnipeg to be with his dying father—"Ralph Conner," the well-known author. He was with his father at the last and attended his funeral and that of his uncle, who died a few hours previously.

The meeting last night was addressed by M. J. Caldwell, C.C.F. member at Ottawa for Rosetown-Biggar, Saskatchewan, will come to Victoria to assist Professor Gordon in the campaign.

C.C.F. headquarters in Victoria, until the election, November 29, will be at room 7A, Chamber of Commerce Building.

INJURED WHEN SEA SHIPPED

Norman Arnet Badly Cut
About Face As Fish Packer Crossed Nitinat Bar

Nitinat bar once more proved a serious menace to fishermen Wednesday afternoon when fish packer Loyal No. 2, Capt. Barreau, under charter to Nootka Packing Company, successfully crossed the bar outbound, but immediately after shipped a tremendous sea, which broke a quarter-inch plate glass window and tore off the door of the pilot house.

Norman Arnet, 20, of Tofino, who was standing in the pilot house, was severely cut by glass, the flesh being practically stripped from ear and temple to chin. The boat continued at full speed in the face of a heavy westerly to Banfield. Dr. G.
Helem of Port Alberni was rushed to Banfield in a speed boat and took Arnet to hospital at Port Alberni.

Aid Asked For Prairie Farmers

C. Stork, M.P.P., Tells Winsor, Ont., Audience of Drought-Sufferers

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—The winter of 1937-38 will be the most terrible the drought-stricken areas of southern Saskatchewan have yet seen, Clarence Stork, member of the Saskatchewan Legislature for Shaunavon, said in an address here Thursday night. Mr. Stork asked support for the Saskatchewan Red Cross in its relief work in the barren areas—once known as the "granary of the empire."

There are 9,000,080 acres in southern Saskatchewan that will not produce a crop, Mr. Stork said. Half the total Saskatchewan population of 960,000 will be receiving relief by Christmas, he predicted.

MORE FARM IMPLEMENTS

OTTAWA (CP)—The Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today Canada's September imports of farm implements and machinery were worth $1,738, 849, a large increase over the $800,522 worth in September, 1936.

"Room Service" Is True to Broadway

George Abbott will send his fourth spoof to town November 15, when "Room Service" will be presented at the Royal Victoria Theatre for one night only.

It is side street Broadway, at its cuffed best, introducing the quaint personages who live by their wits and their wisecracks.
It is the story of a fly-by-night producer driving into a third-rate hotel with a troupe of actors and rehearsing them longer than Billy Rose's "Jumbo." The only difference is that the shoestringer charges the bill to room service.

"Room Service" is true to Broadway, if one may judge by the glowing reviews it received in New York and Detroit.

NEW BRITISH QUOTA MEANS EXPANSION OF VICTORIA INDUSTRY

Mr. Bishop said the new regulations would do away with a number of abuses in the quota system in the past, among them the early morning showings of quota pictures before audiences composed chiefly of the charwomen cleaning out the theatres, and what he called "camouflage" in the making of some pictures for quota distribution.

TEN MOVIES ALREADY

Central Films has so far produced ten pictures in Victoria.
Made under contract to a United States company, they have been shown both in Britain under the quota laws and in Canada and the United States under general distribution.

The company's eleventh picture, "The Devil in Ermine," will probably go into production about November 15, Mr. Bishop said today. According to advices from Hollywood the leading actors and technical crew should be in Victoria a week from today.

The cost of the new production is not yet known.

The ten pictures produced by Central Films to date are: "The Lucky Fugitives," "Tugboat Princess," "Secret Patrol," "Stampede," "Fury and the Woman,"
"What Price Vengeance,"
"Woman Against the World," "Murder Goes North," "Manhattan Shakedown" and "Murder Is News."

BILL GIVEN READING

LONDON (CP Cable)—The House of Commons last night gave second reading without division to the Cinematograph Bill introduced by the government to extend for 10 years the movie films quota system for Britain that would have lapsed next March 31.

Terms of the bill were not made public as yet, but it was authoritatively stated they adhered "most closely" to the White Paper issued last July 30.

The White Paper forecast legislation that would test films both on quality and cost before they could become part of the quota, or proportion of British films that must form part of the year's showing in British theatres. It forecast an eventual increase in the quota from the present 20 per cent to 25 per cent of showings, but a decrease next year while the industry adjusts itself to the new law.

Moving-second-reading, Oliver
Stanley, president of the board of trade, said the importance of the bill could not be exaggerated.
"We are on our defence as westerners and as democrats," he said. "The decadence of the west is just as much the talk of the bazaars of the east as the decay of democracy is the stock leader of newspapers of dictators."

"I do not want our defences to be made in Hollywood."

Tom Williams, Labor, said that under terms of the bill, films made in Canada which could satisfy American producers then could be sent to the United Kingdom to fill the quota.

G. L. Mander, Liberal, and Major L. Milner, Labor, both urged special provisions to deal

In Stage Show

Mary Cheffey, who is appearing in "Room Service," the George Abbott comedy which will be presented at the Royal Victoria Theatre for one night only, Monday, November 15.

"The Bride Wore Red"

Paul Porcasi and Joan Crawford in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production which opened today at the Dominion Theatre.

With films from the Dominions, suggesting any quota regulations should be reciprocal.

The quota system is aimed at stimulating production of British films by imposing an obligation on renters of films and exhibitors to show a certain proportion of British pictures, known as a quota, during each year. A renter is defined as a person who acquires film from the producer.
He distributes copies to the exhibitor for exhibition in theatres.

Under the bill, as forecast in the White Paper, the government proposes not only to decide if a film is suitable as a product, but will make it necessary that a certain minimum sum is expended on it for it to become eligible for the quota.

The reason, it has been authoritatively stated, is that certain producers have rushed cheap, poor productions onto the market for use as quota builders.

The White Paper said the proposed cost test is £1 (4.95) per foot for labor with minimum labor costs of £7,500 (about $37, 125) for the film. Seventy-five per cent of salaries and wages specially paid for labor in making a British film must, with certain exceptions, have been paid British subjects or residents of the British Empire.

To cover the lag in applying the new tests, exhibitors' quotas for 1937-38 will be reduced.

British long-film quotas now are 20 per cent for renters and exhibitors alike. The government proposes to make the long-film quota 15 per cent for renters, 10 per cent for exhibitors in the first year of the new legislation.
Thereafter they will increase steadily until they reach 30 per cent for renters and 25 per cent for exhibitors. A separate quota will be instituted for short films, under 3,000 feet in length.

Support of Aged Parents Debated

OTTAWA (CP)—Children able to support their aged parents should be compelled to do so, rather than leave the parents as a burden on the state, the Dominion-provincial conference on old age pensions agreed unanimously on Thursday.

The conference, to which all provinces sent representatives, recommended "adequate" parents' maintenance acts be passed by all provinces and enforced effectively.

Joan Crawford With Husband

"The Bride Wore Red"
Opens at Dominion Theatre Today

Joan Crawford demonstrates her superb artistry in "The Bride Wore Red," which opened today at the Dominion Theatre, presented the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer adaptation of Ferenc Mol-nar's stage hit, "The Girl From Trieste."

With the lovely star are her distinguished actor-husband, Franchot Tone and Robert
Young in romantic competition.

The story describes the dramatic adventures of a charming girl who rose from poverty to wealth and then gained spiritual riches in love. It is, of course, Cinderella up-to-date, but this one is dated every night in the modern manner. Miss Crawford handles the part with finesse.

The director was Dorothy Arzner, Hollywood's only woman megaphonist.

Miss Crawford appears in one of the most startling creations ever fashioned for the screen. It is a gown of red beads weighing, it is said, 30 pounds.

Ritz Brothers

In New Picture

Crazier, madder and badder than ever are the comedy-mad Ritz Brothers starred for the first time in Twentieth Century-Fox musical hit, "Life Begins in College," which opens at the Capitol Theatre tomorrow.

This hilarious jamboree which features Joan Davies, Tony Martin and Gloria Stuart, has all the essential elements of a gay, giddy, entertaining hit.

The cast also includes Fred Stone, Nat Pendleton, Ed Thorgersen, Dick Baldwin, Joan Marsh, Dixie Dunbar, Jed Prout, Maurice Case, Marjorie Weaver
and J. C. Nugent.

Surrounding the plot, which centre around an Indian with $10,000 daily spending money, are dazzling ensembles of gorgeous dancing girls swinging to the toe-tickling tunes of Pollack and Mitchell.

The picture is directed by William A. Selter; the dance numbers were organized by Nick Castle and Geneva Sawyer.

ATLAS THEATRE

Sonja Henie, who is co-starred with Tyronne Power in the Twentieth Century-Fox musical, "Thin Ice," which is being shown today at the Atlas Theatre, excels not only in ice-skating, but is highly proficient in skiing as well, according to Otto Lang, noted authority on the winter sport.

PLAZA THEATRE

Two motion picture cameras were put in cold storage for 48 hours to adjust themselves to a 22 degree temperature before making the moonlight ice-skating scenes in "Hearts in Bondage," Republic's Civil War romance picture which presents Mae Clark,

In Shakespeare's Town V—THE POET'S BURIAL PLACE

The pretty Avon River flows through the town in which Shakespeare was born. This fact explains the name—Stratford-on-Avon.

Part of door in Trinity Church, showing famous knocker.

The Avon goes past a church which dates back more than 700 years. It is visited by as many people as the house known as "the birthplace." In the church under the floor rest the remains of the great poet.

During his youth, Shakespeare observed that many old graves were opened to make space for new burials. This probably explains the verse carved on stone above the grave. In the verse, people are begged not to move Shakespeare's "bones."

On one of the doors of the church is a famous "knocker." It has nothing to do with Shakespeare, but is interesting because of the legend about it. We are told that long ago men ran to the church when they were hunted by officers of the law. If they caught hold of the knocker before being seized, they had found "sanctuary." For 37 days they were free from arrest.

Another legend has to do with the Clotpon family. This family was the leading one in the Stratford district while Shakespeare was growing up. Sir Hugh Clotpon, his wife and five daughters were buried in Trinity Church not far from Shakespeare's grave.

One of the Clotpon daughters may have given Shakespeare an idea for his famous play, "Romeo and Juliet." The story goes that she was buried in the family vault during the time the Black Plague was sweeping over England. Soon afterward the vault was opened for another burial, and it was found that the daughter had been buried by mistake—before she really was dead! In the poet's mind, she was perhaps the true Juliet.

The play, "Hamlet," seems to have been named after one of Shakespeare's younger brothers, who had nearly the same name—Hamnet—and who died at the age of 12. Another person in the play was a young woman named Ophelia, who came to her death by drowning. While I was driving through the countryside, I was shown the well in which "the first Ophelia" is said to have been drowned. She was another of the Clotpon daughters.

If those legends are true, the church in which Shakespeare was buried also contains the remains of two famous characters in his plays—Ophelia and Juliet.

For and Against Business Training

Dorothy Dix

It Makes And Unmakes Girl for Marriage

A CORRESPONDENT asks: Is it a good thing for a girl to have several years' experience in business before she marries? The answer to this question, as to almost every other problem in life, is yes and no, because a business training both fits and unfits a woman for domesticity. In fact, there are seven convincing arguments in its favor and three irrefutable ones against it.

First—It is a good thing for a girl to have earned her own living because she has proved herself to herself. She knows that she can support herself, so she is saved from the very deadly fear of "what would become of me if John should die" that haunts so many wives. It gives her independence in marriage, because she can earn her own bread and butter and does not have to stand a brute of a husband because he is a meat ticket.

Second—It teaches her to do a good job. Taking her by and large, the girl who has had a business training makes a better housekeeper than the domestic girl because she has had accuracy and precision drilled into her and so she has formed the habit of doing good work instead of sloppy work. She will cook by rule instead of trusting the results to luck.

Third—She will know how to handle money and get a 100 cents out of a dollar. No girl who has even earned her own money and known by experience how much blood and sweat and weariness goes into every dollar looks at money the way the girl does who has always had everything given to her.

Fourth—She learns how to take criticism. She doesn't burst into tears or fly into a temper when she is reprimanded for a fault, or attention is called to some mistake she has made. She accepts rebuke meekly even when it is undeserved, because a soft answer not only turns away the wrath of her superior, but keeps her eye on the prize.

Fifth—It gives her a sympathy with her husband that the woman who has never worked outside of the home cannot possibly have. She knows how terrible and merciless is the struggle in the commercial world. She knows that going down to business is not the lark that the domestic wife thinks her husband is going on. It is a man going down to fight for his life. So when her husband comes back, spent and nerve-racked, and so weary he doesn't want to do anything on earth but eat and go to bed, she doesn't drag him out to parties, or complain because he isn't gay and chatty. She feeds him and lets him snooze over his paper because she remembers when she, too, felt that she would scream if anybody even asked her a question.

Sixth—She learns all about men in business and gets wise to their little peculiarities. She learns how to yes-yes her boss and rub his fur the right way. That knowledge enables her to manage her husband.

Seventh—The girl who has been in business has the same background as the man she marries and that gives them a basis of companionship. She knows the things he knows and so she doesn't yawn in his face when he discusses the stock market and his plans for his business. There are no people so interesting to us as those to whom we can talk shop.

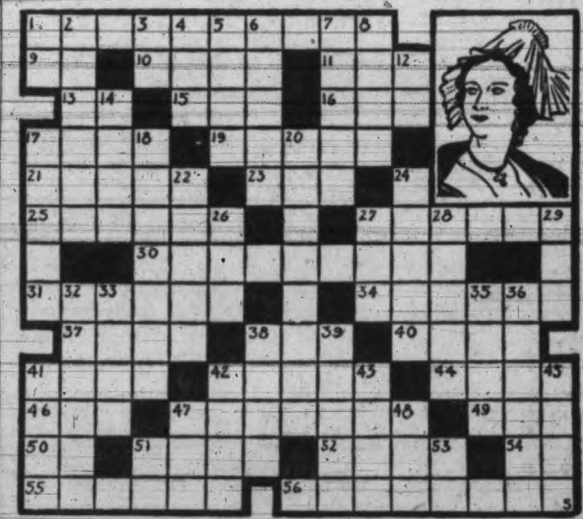

The three disadvantages of a girl having been in business before marriage are: First—If she goes from the schoolroom to the counting-room, it gives her no chance to acquire any domestic skill and knowledge. She has to learn how to cook and keep house after marriage, and that is hard on the poor husband's stomach and pocketbook.

Second—Having experienced the joys of financial independence, a woman does not take kindly to having to ask even a generous husband for every cent she spends. If she happens to get a tightwad who rows over the bills and wants to know what she did with the quarter he gave her week before last, it is far more unendurable to her than it is to the woman who has never had any money of her own and who has always been used to seeing Father act that way.

Third—Finally, the business life unfits most women for the domestic life, because after the thrill of working in groups and where people were coming and going all the time and something new was happening, they find working alone within the four walls of a home dull and boring.
